CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, this case concerns an alleged act of noncompliance in the JET program. The date of the alleged noncompliance is October 5, 2011. No Notice of Noncompliance was sent to Claimant, as required by BEM 233A, Failure to Meet Employment and/or Self-Sufficiency-Related Requirements: FIP," pp. 8-9. As a result, Claimant did not have the opportunity to defend herself against the allegation, nor did she have notice as to any triage conference proceedings at which she would have had the opportunity to do so.

Based on the record of this case, it is found and determined that the Department must be reversed. The Department failed to follow its own procedures in this case. The Department failed to identify and communicate a date of noncompliance to Claimant, thus denying her of her right to challenge the Department's determination that she was noncompliant.

In addition, the Department alleges that this is a second noncompliance. However, Claimant's Hearing Request indicates that the first alleged noncompliance was reversed. The Department's testimony at the hearing was that Claimant received FIP benefits for the entire year of 2011. This evidence supports a conclusion that the alleged noncompliance on October 5, 2012, is not a second violation but, in fact, a first violation. Thus, it is found and determined that the Department's allegation that this is a second violation is incorrect, based on the entire record of this case.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC.

| <input type="checkbox"/> properly closed Claimant's case | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> improperly closed Claimant's case |

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department
