ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly denied Claimant's application for Medical Assist ance (MA-P), Retro-Medicaid and State Disab ility Assistance (SDA)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (2) On February 13, 2012, the Claim ant filed with the Department an application for MA-P, Retro Medicaid and SDA benefits alleging disability due to asthma, heart conditions, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD), back problems and joint problems. (Department Exhibit B, pp. 1-8).
- On February 28, 2012, PA, examined the Claimant and reviewed x-rays of the Claimant's thoracic spine and lower spine. found the x-rays to be unremarkable. Upon examination, the Claimant's blood pressure at 128/ 80 with clear lungs. (Department Exhibit B, pp. 19-21).
- (4) On March 21, 2012, found the Claimant to be logical, coherent, clear and organized. opined the Claim ant's only significant obstacle to working would be the se If reported physical limit ations. (Department Exhibit B, pp. 25-31).
- On March 29, 2012, evaluated the Claimant. found no obvious bony deformities but limited range of motion of the lumbar, left shoulder and bilateral knee. The Claimant displayed a normal gait and ambulated without assistance and was found to have normal grip strength and intact motor strength and s ensation. (Department Ex hibit B, pp. 34-37).
- (6) On April 25, 2012, the Medical Re view Team (MRT) denied Claimant's application for SDA because the Claimant's impairment would not prevent employment for 90 days or more . MRT denied Claimant's MA-P application stating the Claimant is capable of performing other work. (Department Exhibit B, pp. 65, 66).
- (7) On May 1, 2012, the Department sent Claimant notice that his application for MA-P, Retro Medicaid and SDA was denied. (Department Exhibit B, pp. 67-69).
- (8) On May 7, 2012, the Claiman t requested a hearing to dispute the May 1, 2012 notice of case action.
- (9) On June 20, 2012, the State H earing Review Team (SHRT) denied Claimant's application stat ing Claimant's impairm ents did not meet/equal the intent or severity of a Social Se curity Listing and the Claimant retains the residual functional capacity to perform light work. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 1, 2).

- (10) On September 20, 2012, SHRT reviewed additional medical evidence and denied the Claimant's application a second time. SHRT st ated the Claimant's impairments/comb ination of impairment s does not meet/equal the intent or severity of a Social Security Administration (SSA) listing, and the medical evidence of re cord indicates the Claimant retains the capacity to perform light exer tional task s. SHRT found the evidence did not support the presence of sever psych iatric limitations and found the Claimant was capable of performing past relevant work as a sorter/pricer and assembler and therefore denied the Claimant SDA benefits. (Department Exhibit C, pp. 1a, 2a).
- (11) Claimant has applied for Social Security disability and has been denied. At the time of the hearing, the Claimant was in the appeal process.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is estab lished by Title XIX of the Social Sec urity Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the C ode of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

Pursuant to Federal Rule 42 CFR 435.540, the Department of Human Services uses the federal Supplemental Security Income (SSI) policy in determining eligibility for disability under the Medical Assistance program. Under SSI, disability is defined as:

...the inability to do any substant ial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months. 20 CFR 416.905

A set order is used to determine disability, that being a five-step sequential evaluation process for determining whether an individual is disabled. (20 CFR 404.1520(a) and 416.920(a)). The steps are followed in order. Current work activity, severity of impairments, residual functional capacity, past work, age, or education and work experience is reviewed. If it is determined that the Claimant is or is not disabled at a step of the evaluation process, the evaluation will not go on to the next step.

At step one, the Administrative Law Judge must determine whet her the Claimant is engaging in substantial gainful activity . (20 CFR 404.1520(b) and 416.920(b)). Substantial gainful activity (SGA) is defined as work activity that is both substantial and gainful. "Substantial work activity" is work activity that involves doing signific ant physical or mental activities. (20 CFR 404.1572(a) and 416.972(a)). "Gainful work activity" is work that is usually done for pay or profit, whether or not a profit is realized.

(20 CFR 404.1572(b)) and 416. 972(b)). Generally, if an individual has earnings from employment or self-employment above a specific level set out in the regulations, it is presumed that he/she has de monstrated the ability to engage in SG A. (20 CFR 404.1574, 404.1575, 416.974, and 416.975). If an individual engages in SGA, he/she is not disabled regardless of how severe his/her physical or mental impairments are and regardless of his/her age, education, and work experience. If the individual is not engaging in SGA, the analysis proceeds to the second step.

At step two, the Administrative Law Judg e must determine whet her the Claimant has a medically determinable impairment that is "severe" or a combination of impairments that impairment(s) have met the duration r equirement (20 CFR is "severe" and that said 404.1520(c) and 416.920(a)(2)(ii) and (c)). An impairment or combination of impairments is "severe" within the meaning of the r egulations if it signific antly limits an individual's ability to perform basic work activities. An impairment or combination of impairments is "not severe" when medical and other evidence e establish only a slight abnormality or a combination of slight abno rmalities that would have no more than a minimal effect on an individual's ability to work (20 CFR 404.1521 and 416. 921; Social Security Rulings (SSRs) 85-28, 96-3p, and 96-4p). In order for an impair ment(s) to meet the duration requiremen t, the impairment(s) must hav e lasted or be expected to unless the impairment(s) is ex pected to result in deat h last for at least 12 months, (20 CFR 416.909). If the Cla imant does not have a severe medically determinable impairment or combination of impairments that hav e met the duration requirement he/she is not disabled. If the Claimant has a severe im pairment or combination of impairments that have met the duration requir ement, the analysis proceeds to the third step.

Statements about pain or other symptoms do not alone establish disability. There must be medical signs and laboratory findings which demonstrate a medical impairment. 20 CFR 416.929(a).

Medical reports should include -

- (1) Medical history.
- (2) Clinical findings (suc h as the re sults of physical or mental status examinations);
- (3) Laboratory findings (such as blood pressure, X-rays);
- (4) Diagnosis (statement of disease or injury based on its signs and symptoms). 20 CFR 416.913(b).

In determining disability under the law, the ability to work is measured. An individual's functional capacity for doing basic work activities is evaluated. If an individual has the ability to perform basic work activities with out significant limitations, he or she is not considered disabled. 20 CFR 416.994(b)(1)(iv).

Basic work activities are the abilities and aptitudes necessary to do most jobs. Examples of these include –

- (1) Physical functions such as wa lking, standing, sitting, lifting, pushing, pulling, reaching, carrying, or handling;
- (2) Capacities for seeing, hearing, and speaking;
- (3) Understanding, carrying out, and remembering simple instructions;
- (4) Use of judgment;
- (5) Responding appropriately to supervision, co-workers and usual work situations; and
- (6) Dealing with changes in a ro utine work setting. 20 CFR 416.921(b).

Medical findings must allow a determination of (1) the nature and limiting effects of your impairment(s) for any period in question; (2) the probable duration of the impairment; and (3) the residual functional capacity to do work-related physical and mental activities. 20 CFR 416.913(d).

Medical evidence may contain medical opinions. Medical opinions are statements from physicians and psychologists or other a cceptable medical sources that reflect judgments about the nature and severity of the impairment(s), including your symptoms, diagnosis and prognosis, what an indiv idual can do des pite impairment(s), and the physical or mental restrictions. 20 CFR 416.927(a)(2).

All of the evidence relevant to the claim, including medical opinions, is reviewed and findings are made. 20 CFR 416 .927(c). A statement by a medical source finding that an individual is "disabled" or "unable to work" does not mean that disability exists for the purposes of the program. 20 CFR 416.927(e).

At step three, the Administrative Law J udge must determine whether the Claimant's impairment or combination of impairments meets or medically equals the criteria of an impairment listed in 20 CFR Par t 404, S ubpart P, Appendix 1. (20 CFR 4 04.1520(d), 404.1525, 404.1526, 416.920(d), 416.925, and 416.926). If the Claimant's impairment or combination of impairments meets or medically equals the criter ia of a listing and meets the duration requirement , (20 CF R 404.1509 and 416.909), the Claimant is disabled. If it does not, the analysis proceeds to the next step.

Before considering st ep four of the sequential evaluation process, the Administrative Law Judge must first determine the Claim ant's residual functional capacity. (20 CFR 404.1520(e) and 416.920(e)). An individual's residual functional capacity is his/her ability to do physical and mental work activities on a sustained basis despite limitations from his/her impairments. In making this finding, all of the Claimant's impairments, including impairments that are not severe, must be considered. (20 CFR 404.1520(e), 404.1545, 416.920(e), and 416.945; SSR 96-8p).

Next, the Administrative Law Judge must determine at step four whether the Claimant has the residual functional capacity to perform the requirements of his/her past relevant work. (20 CFR 404.1520(f) and 416.920(f)). The term past relev ant work means work performed (either as the Claimant actually performed it or as it is generally performed in the national economy) within the last 15 years or 15 years prior to the date that disability must be established. In addition, the work must have lasted long enough for the Claimant to learn to do the job and have been SG A. (20 CFR 404. 1560(b), 404.1565, 416.960(b), and 416.965). If the Claimant has the residual functional capacity to do his/her past relevant work, the Claimant is not disabled. If the Claimant is unable to do any past relevant work or does not have any past relevant work, the analysis proceeds to the fifth and last step.

At the las t step of the sequential ev aluation proc ess (20 CFR 404.15 20(g) and 416.920(g)), the Administrative Law Judge must determine whether the Claimant is able to do any other work considering his/her r esidual functional capacity, age, education, and work experience. If the Claimant is able to do other work, he/she is not disabled. If the Claimant is not able to do other work and meets the duration requirements, he/she is disabled.

The Administrative Law Judge is responsible for making the determination or decision about whether the statutory definition of disability is met. The Administrative Law Judge reviews all medical findings and other evidence that support a medical source's statement of disability. 20 CFR 416.927(e).

At Step 1, I find the Claimant is not engaged in substantial gainful activity. Therefore, Claimant is not disqualified from receiving disability at Step 1.

At Step 2, I find the medical records and the Claimant's testimony at the hearing established the existence of CO PD, asthma and hypertension. I do find the Claimant's impairments are "severe" wit hin the meaning of the Regul ations, because they do significantly limit the Claimant's ability to perform basic work activities.

At Step 3, I find the Claimant's medical record will not support a finding that Claimant's impairment(s) is a "listed impairment" or equal to a listed impairment. Although the impairments are "severe" they do not meet or equal the intent of the Social Security listings. Accordingly, Claimant cannot be found to be disabled based upon medical evidence alone. 20 CFR 416.920(d).

At Step 4, I find the objective medical evidence of record is sufficient to es tablish that Claimant is not prevented from performing the duties required from his past relevant employment (sorter/pricer/assembly). Accordingly, Claimant is not disqualified from receiving disability at Step 4.

Although I have found the Claimant disqualified from receiving disability at Step 3 and 4, I will continue to proceed through the sequent ial e valuation process to determine whether or not Claimant has the residual functional capacity to perform other jobs.

To determine the physical demands (exertional requirements) of work in the national economy, we class ify jobs as sedentary, light, medium and heavy. These terms have the same meaning as they have in the Dictionary of Occupational Titles, published by the Department of Labor. 20 CFR 416.967.

Sedentary work. Sedentary work involves lifting no more than 10 pounds at a time and occasionally lifting or carrying articles lik e docket files, ledgers, and small tools. Although a sedentary job is defined as one which involves sitting, a certain amount of walking and standing is often necessary in carrying out job duties. Jobs are sedentary if walking and standing are required occasionally and other sedentary criteria are met. 20 CFR 416.967(a).

Light work. Light wor k involves lifting no more than 20 pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to 10 pounds. Even though the weight lifted may be very little, a job is in this categor y when it requires a good deal of walking or standing, or when it involves sitting most of the time with some pushing and pulling of arm or leg controls. 20 CFR 416.967(b).

Medium work. Medium work involves lifting no more than 50 pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weig hing up to 25 pounds. If someone can do medium work, we determine that he or s he can als o do sede ntary and light work. 20 CFR 416.967(c).

Heavy wor k. Heavy work involves lifting no more than 100 pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weig hing up to 50 pounds. If someone can do heavy wor k, we determine that he or she c an also do medium, light, and sedentary work. 20 CFR 416.967(d).

At Step 5, I find the Claimant has failed to present the required competent, material and substantial evidence which would support a fi nding that Claimant has an impairment or combination of impairments which would significantly limit the physical or mental ability to do bas ic work activities. 20 CFR 416.92 0(c). Although Claimant has cited medical problems, the clinical documentation submitted by Claimant is not sufficient to establish a finding that Claimant is disabled. Base don the medical evidence of record, the Claimant is capable of performing a wide range of light/unskilled work. There is no objective medical evidence to substantiate Claimant's claim that the alleged impairment(s) are severe enough to reach to he criteria and definition of disabled.

Furthermore, the medical-vocational guidelines would direct a finding of not disabled given the Claimant's age, education and residual functional capacity. Accordingly, Claimant is not disabled for the purposes of the Medical Assistance disability (MA-P) program.

The Dep artment's Bridges Eligib ility Manua I contains the following policy statements and instructions for casework ers regarding the State Disability Assistance program: to receive State Disability Assist ance, a person must be disabled, caring for a disable diperson or age 65 or older. BEM, Item 261, p. 1. Bec ause Claimant does not meet the definition of disabled under the MA-P program and because the evidence of record does not establish that Claiman t is unable to work for a per iod exceeding 90 days, the Claimant does not meet the disability crit eria for State Disability Assistance benefits either.

Accordingly, I find the Department has es tablished by the necessary competent, material and substantial ev idence on the r ecord that it was acting in com pliance with department policy when it determined that Claimant was not eligible to receive MA-P, Retro Medicaid and SDA.

DECISION AND ORDER

I find, bas ed upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decide the Department has appropriately established on the record that it was acting in compliance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's application for MA-P, Retro Medicaid and SDA.

Accordingly, the department's decision is AFFIRMED.

It is SO ORDERED.
