CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3101-3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1998-2000 AACS R 400.3151-400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1997 AACRS R 400.5001-5015.

Additionally, the Department requested two separate pieces of information from the Claimant regarding her employment so it could properly calculate the Claimant's food assistance. The Department requested that the Claimant respond to a wage match for Family Dollar and requested pay stubs. The Department also requested Verification of New Hire at Forman Mills. The Department did not receive the requested information and the pay stubs it was seeking so that it could properly determine income. The Claimant did not provide the requested information sought by the Department by the due date. The Claimant may have provided some of the information, but did not provide complete information as requested by the Department. Based upon the testimony of the Claimant and the documentary evidence that was admitted, it is determined that the Department correctly closed the Claimant's food assistance case for failure to verify information. Although the Claimant testified that she did not receive the documents requesting the information, her testimony was that she did provide some of the information by fax. Ultimately, it is determined that Claimant did not provide the information requested and there was no fax verification presented to establish when she provided the information to the Department.

The Claimant may reapply for FAP benefits at any time.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly closed Claimant's case.

denied Claimant's application.

reduced Claimant's benefits.
