MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

Reg. No.: 201258679
Issue No.: 1002
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: July 19, 2012
County: Wayne DHS (19)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Christian Gardocki

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 following Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 19, 2012 from Detroit, Michigan. Participants included the above named claimant. Participants on behalf of Department of Human Services (DHS) included [REDACTED], Manager and [REDACTED], Specialist.

ISSUE

The issue is whether DHS properly denied Claimant's application for Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits based on Claimant's withdrawal of her application.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On an unspecified date, Claimant applied for FIP benefits.
2. Claimant informed DHS that she should be deferred from Work Participation Program (WPP) participation because of an obligation to care for her disabled spouse and two children.
3. On 5/24/12, Claimant submitted three medical documents concerning her basis for disability.
4. DHS informed Claimant that the submitted medical documents were not received.

5. DHS also informed Claimant that she was required to attend WPP until a decision was made on a WPP deferral.
6. On an unspecified date, Claimant told a DHS representative that she wished to withdraw her FIP benefit application.
7. On 6/6/12, DHS denied Claimant's FIP benefit application based on Claimant's FIP benefit application withdrawal.
8. On 6/11/12, Claimant requested a hearing to dispute the FIP benefit denial and a failure by DHS to process Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for 6/2012.
9. Claimant has no current FAP benefit dispute.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 through R 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The present case concerned a denial of a FIP benefit application. The basis for the application denial was a withdrawal of the application by Claimant. Claimant conceded that she told a DHS representative that she wished to withdraw her FIP benefit application. Despite her withdrawal, Claimant requested a hearing to essentially revoke her application withdrawal.

An adequate notice is a written notice sent to the client at the same time an action takes effect (not pended). BAM 130 at 4. Adequate notice is given for a denial of an application. Id. Thus, when DHS denies an application on Bridges, their database, the application is immediately denied. Clients who withdraw an application should not have an expectation to re-pursue a previously submitted application should they change their mind. This policy is very persuasive evidence that Claimant is not entitled to a reinstatement of her FIP benefit application.

An implied requirement of a withdrawal of an application is that the withdrawal be informed and voluntary. There was evidence suggesting that Claimant's application withdrawal was based on misinformation by DHS. Claimant was seeking a deferral from WPP participation based on an alleged need to care for her disabled spouse and teenage children. The testifying DHS specialist informed Claimant that Claimant was required to attend Work Participation Program (WPP) until Claimant was approved for a deferral from WPP participation. No such DHS regulation is known to exist.

It was also not disputed that DHS failed to evaluate Claimant's basis for deferral because Claimant allegedly failed to submit medical documents concerning her family's needs. Claimant presented DHS with three Medical Needs forms which had a DHS date stamp. A DHS date stamp is very persuasive evidence that the documents were submitted to DHS. Further, the documents had a 5/24/12 date stamp which tends to verify a submission date long before Claimant withdrew her FIP benefit application. Thus, the DHS failure to evaluate Claimant for a WPP deferral was only due to DHS negligence, not Claimant's application withdrawal.

Generally, a client's statement to DHS requesting withdrawal of an application is not something that can be or should be revoked. The present case presented circumstances justifying an exception to the general rule. The misinformation by DHS and failure by DHS to consider Claimant's basis for deferral contributed to Claimant's decision to withdraw her application. It is not known whether Claimant should be deferred from WPP, but it is found that Claimant is entitled to a deferral decision despite her subsequent application withdrawal.

It should be noted that DHS could not identify Claimant's date of FIP benefit application; thus, the below order cannot cite a specific application date. DHS conceded that whatever the date of application, Claimant's benefit eligibility would be affected from 2/29/12.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS improperly denied Claimant's FIP benefit application. It is ordered that DHS:

- (1) reinstate Claimant's FIP benefit application from an unstated date; and
- (2) make a decision based on Claimant's submitted medical documents concerning WPP deferral.

The actions taken by DHS are REVERSED.
