CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3101-3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1998-2000 AACS R 400.3151-400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1997 AACS R 400.5001-5015.

Additionally, during the hearing it was apparent that the Claimant had attempted to cooperate and that the Department processed the Claimant's food assistance, and reduced same due to a reporting by Claimant that no rent was paid by her, as she lived in subsidized housing notwithstanding the shelter verification filed by the Claimant's landlord. The Claimant pays no rent and the food assistance allotment was calculated accordingly. Based upon the testimony of the parties at the hearing it appears that the only remaining issue to be verified is the Claimant's current rent amount of $47, which recently changed (as reported by Claimant) and still requires a shelter verification.

After a thorough review of the Exhibits submitted by the parties and the testimony of the witnesses, it is determined that no FAP benefits were lost by the Claimant and the Claimant's case was not closed at any time, thus no further remedy can be afforded the Claimant. The Department processed the redetermination through June 1, 2012, and no further action is required, other than verification of new rent amount which changed as of July 1, 2012 which is not the subject of this hearing.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly processed the Claimant's redetermination improperly
