CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additional facts found at the administrative hearing are that as of October 1, 2011, Claimant had received FIP benefits for more than forty-eight (48) months, and she was terminated from the FIP program on that basis. It is unknown whether Claimant appealed this action by the Department.

On October 14, 2011, Claimant reapplied for FIP benefits and requested a medical disability deferment from the work participation requirement of the FIP program. Claimant's medical documentation was sent, as required, to the Department's Medical Review Team (MRT) for a determination on the deferment issue. Claimant did not receive FIP benefits during the pendency of the application with MRT.

On May 23, 2012, the MRT denied Claimant's request for a medical deferment. The MRT certification is not appealable as it is an internal decision of the Department, and only final decisions of the Department are appealable. BAM 600, "Hearings." The Administrative Law Judge's decision arises instead out of the Department's action of June 20, 2012, denying Claimant's FIP application. Department Exhibit 1, p. 1, Boxes 2 and 3.

Claimant's appeal through the administrative hearing process involves consideration of her eligibility for retroactive and ongoing FIP benefits. Both of these issues will be considered.

The Department policy applicable in this case is BEM 234, "FIP Time Limits." "A family is ineligible for FIP when a mandatory group member in the program group reaches the 48-month time limit." BEM 234, "FIP Time Limits," p. 2. This manual section puts a lifetime limit on the receipt of FIP benefits, and Claimant has reached this limit. In this case, therefore, the Department is barred from providing FIP benefits to her because she is time-barred as a work-eligible individual, and the MRT did not verify that she is disabled. As stated above, the MRT decision as to disability is not appealable.

It is found and determined that the Department's denial of benefits based on MRT's decision bars retroactive FIP benefits to Claimant from October 1, 2011, to the present, as well as acting as a bar to future benefits. The Department's denial of Claimant's October 14, 2011, application is correct.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly denied Claimant's application improperly denied Claimant's application properly closed Claimant's case improperly closed Claimant's case for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly. did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
