CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

On June 28, 2012 the Department completed a new FAP budget resulting in a reduction in FAP benefits. The Department issued a case action notice indicating the Claimant's FAP benefits were being reduced. The Department reduced the Claimant's FAP benefits from $368 to $277 a month. The Department made this determination based upon income changes.

The Department determined the Claimant's FAP group saw an increase in monthly income of $602 a month based upon two household members starting to collect RSDI of $301 each per month beginning July 1, 2012. With the addition of this income to the group who previously had income made up only of $200 and $1,204 in RSDI benefits caused the reduction in FAP benefits. The Department determined the group had a new countable unearned income of $2,006 a month.

Claimant testified the amounts as reported were correct as of June 2012. However, he received a letter in July 2012 from the Social Security Administration dated July 5, 2012, that his one son would no longer receive his $200 RSDI payment. This occurred following Claimant's request for hearing and after the Department budget had been completed. Claimant acknowledged he had not reported the income change to the Department prior to the hearing. Claimant was advised to submit a copy of the letter to the Department for future FAP benefit months. Claimant also indicated his physician had indicated he was losing too much weight and required nutritional supplements. Claimant was advised to turn this information into the Department for consideration in future FAP budgets.

After reviewing the budgets and evidence submitted for consideration, this Administrative Law Judge finds the Department properly determined Claimant's FAP benefits with the available information at the time of case action.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that, due to excess income, the Department properly improperly

- denied Claimant's application
- reduced Claimant's benefits
- closed Claimant's case

for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC.
