ISSUE

Did the department properly close the claimant's Adult Medical Program (AMP) case for failure to provide the required verifications?

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1. The claimant was a recipient of AMP benefits.
- 2. On the claimant was mailed a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503), requiring her to submit a current checking account statement by
- 3. On the claimant was mailed a second Verification Checklist requiring her to submit a current checking account statement and proof of residential address by
- 4. The claimant did provide a copy of her checking account by the due date. However, the printout listed her account number and not her name, so the case worker determined it was not acceptable.
- 5. The claimant was mailed a Notice of Case Action (DHS-1605) on that stated her AMP case was being closed for failure to verify.

Date Mailed:

6. The claimant submitted a hearing request on

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by Title XXI of the Social Security Act; (1115)(a)(1) of the Social Security Act, and is administered by the Department of Human Services (DHS or department) pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq. Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Bridges Reference Manual (RFT).

MCL 24.278(2) provides a disposition may be made of a contested case by stipulation or agreed settlement. In this case, the department agreed that the claimant did provide the bank account statement within the time period required. While the statement did not have the claimant's name on it, it came with other material from the claimant, in an envelope from the claimant. The case worker had no problem identifying that the account statement was the claimant's. Therefore, there was no dispute that the claimant did satisfy the Verification Checklist requirement. If the department had needed further verification, it could have been requested. The department agreed that the claimant did provide the information necessary for them to determine her eligibility and agreed to reinstate the claimant's AMP case.

The claimant and department agreed that this resolved the issue.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the department did not properly close the claimant's AMP case.

Accordingly, the department's actions are REVERSED. The department shall reinstate the claimant's AMP case as of the date of closure. It is SO ORDERED.
