CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

In the instant case Claimant was sent a work participation notice on June 1, 2012. Claimant needed to appear for work participation on June 18, 2012. Claimant failed to appear on June 18, 2012. On July 6, 2012, the Department issued a non compliance notice with a triage appointment scheduled for July 12, 2012. Claimant failed to appear for this appointment and the Department determined that Claimant had no good cause. The Department issued a notice of case action on July 12, 2012. Claimant filed an appeal on July 17, 2012.

Claimant testified she had no excuse for missing the triage appointment. She admitted she had simply forgotten the appointment. She did testify she contacted the Department on the day of the scheduled triage at 3:00 p.m. knowing she had missed her 8:30 a.m. triage appointment. Claimant testified she had missed her original appointment for work participation due to WIC appointments for her two children.

In the above case, Claimant was properly given notice of her work participation date. Claimant was informed when and where to appear. Claimant was given the opportunity to participate in a triage where she could have presented her good cause reasons for failing to attend. However, Claimant failed to attend this meeting. The time to present good cause for failure to attend work participation is at a triage meeting. Claimant cannot raise good cause at a subsequent hearing that she failed to present to the Department when given the opportunity.

This Administrative Law Judge finds the Department properly sanctioned Claimant for failure to attend work participation.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusio	ns of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department □ did not act properly.
Accordingly, the Department's \square AMP \boxtimes FIP \square FAP \square MA \square SDA \square CDC decisions \boxtimes AFFIRMED \square REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.	on
