CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, Claimant was an ongoing recipient of FAP and MA benefits, but her cases were closed when she failed to timely respond to a verification of employment requested by the Department. On June 25, 2012, Claimant reapplied for FAP and MA benefits. Two days after she filed her application, Claimant lost her job, and advised the Department of the termination of her employment. The Department sent Claimant a Verification Checklist dated July 6, 2012 requesting several documents, including a verification of her end of employment, by July 16, 2012 and approved Claimant's FAP application pending its receipt of the requested verifications. When the Department failed to receive the verifications by July 19, 2012, the Department sent Claimant a Notice of Case Action denying her MA and FAP application as of August 1, 2012.

At the hearing, Claimant testified that she had faxed in the requested documents on July 16, 2012. However, she did not have any confirmation of her fax and the Department testified that did not receive any fax from Claimant. The Department further testified that, when it received Claimant's request for hearing indicating that a fax was sent, it looked for the fax but did not find it. Claimant also testified that her former employer had told her that it attempted to fax the Verification of Employment (VOE) showing the termination of her employment to the Department but the fax did not go through. Thus, Claimant was aware that the VOE was not received by the Department. The Department testified that no VOE from the employer had been received, either by mail or by fax, concerning Claimant's end of employment, as of the hearing date. Under these facts, the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's FAP and MA application for failure to provide requested verifications.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly

- closed Claimant's case.
- denied Claimant's application.
- reduced Claimant's benefits.
