CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Service s Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Referenc e Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Serv ices Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Program Reference Tables (PRT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established purs uant to the Personal Responsibility and W ork Opportunity Reconc iliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly k nown as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 t hrough R 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistanc e Program (FAP) [form erly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is establis hed by the Food St amp Act of 1977, as amend ed, and is implemented by the federal r egulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independenc e Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 through R 400.3015.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The D epartment of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3151 through R 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is establis hed by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Soc ial Security Act, the Ch ild Care and Developm ent Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Fede ral Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Depart ment provides servic es to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001 through R 400.5015.

☐ The Medical Ass istance (MA) program is es tablished by the Title XIX of the Soc ial Security Act and is im plemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independ ence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MC L 400.105.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfar e fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
  - the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
    - the group has a previ ous intentional program violation, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves c oncurrent receipt of assistance,
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. [BEM 720 (August 1, 2012), p 10.]

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an overis suance (OI) exis ts for which all t hree of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inacc urate informa tion needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly in structed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or me ntal impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their r eporting respon sibilities. [BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original).]

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p 1.

The Department must establish an IPV by clear and convincing evidence. BAM 720, p 1. Clear and convinc ing evidence is eviden ce sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent trafficked her FAP benefits at Trafficking is the buving or selling of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other t han eligible food. Department of Human Services, Bridges Policy Glossary (BPG) (April 1, 2012), p 45. Trafficking also includes (i) fraudulently using, transferring, alte ring, acquir ing, or possessing coupons. authorization cards, or access devices, or (ii) redeeming or presenting for payment coupons known to be fraudulently obtained or transferred. BEM 203 (October 1, 2011), p 2. The Department has also reference ed the definitions of trafficking from MC 750.300a of the Michigan Penal Code and from 7 CFR § 273.16(c)(2) (2012). While the definition of trafficking from a criminal statute is not appr opriate in an administrative hearing, it is noted that the definitions provided in both MCL 750.300a and 7 CFR § 273.16(c)(2) are similar to those in BEM 203 and in the BPG.

In support of its allegation that Responden t trafficked her FAP benefits at the Department contended that was a es tablishment that engaged in trafficking and established that she trafficked her F AP that Respondent's transaction history at ile an investigation of benefits there. However, wh by the United State s Department of Agriculture (USDA) and federa I Office of Inspector General concluded was trafficking benefits and result ed in a criminal comp laint against that owner in federal court, as of the date of this hearing, the criminal matter involving No or was unresolved. Further, while the Depar tment presented evidenc e that, during the course of the investigation against the owner of adm itted that he was involved in trafficking FAP benefits and former Noor customers admitted that they had trafficked FAP benefits at because thoe statements were not made to t he Department agent who testified at the hearing and involv e individuals who are not parties to the instant proceeding, those st atements are inadmiss ible hearsay. MRE 801; MRE 802; BAM 600 (August 1, 2012), p 28. Thus, the Department may not rely on Noor being a trafficking establishment to support its trafficking c ase against Respondent.

The only remaining evidence pr esented by the Department to establish Respondent's trafficking was her FAP transaction histor y showing $3482.49 in FAP transactions at between A revi ew of Respondent's F AP transaction history at during this period shows an unusual pattern of transactions. On five separate occasions, Respondent used FAP benefits at totaling within $2 of $260. On another five occasions, Respondent used FAP benefits at Noor totaling within $2 of $130. On , Respondent had two transactions separated by one minute, the first for $146.23 and the second for $145.77. The next day, Responden t for $129.88, bringing her two day total t had another transaction at o $421.88. This unusual pattern of transactions was s ufficient to establish by clear and convinc ing evidence that Respondent engaged in trafficking at at least with respect to the transactions cited. T hus, the Department established that Respondent committed an IPV of the FAP program.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IP V disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p 12.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard di squalification period except when a court orders a diffe rent period, or except when the overissuance relates to MA. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwis e eligible. BAM 710 (October 1, 2009), p 2. Cli ents are disqua lified for pe riods of on e year for the first IPV, two years for the sec ond IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p 13.

In this case, the Department has satisf ied its burden of sho wing that Respondent committed an IPV of the FAP program. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification under the FAP program.

Recoupment of Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700 (December 1, 2011), p 1.

The OI amount for trafficking-related IPVs is the v alue of the trafficked benefits as determined by a court decision, the individ ual's admission, or documentation used to establish the trafficking determination. BAM 720, p 7.

In this case, the Department alleged t hat Respondent trafficked $3482.49 of her FAP benefits between and presented Respondent's FAP transaction hist ory at to support this calculation. However, as discussed above, the document ation supports trafficking with respect to the follo wing transactions:

Thes e trafficked benefits total $2383.31. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $2383.31 in FAP benefits from Re spondent in this case.
