CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, the evidence produced at the hearing clearly demonstrated that the Claimant never worked for [REDACTED], nor was it established how the original caseworker assigned to process the first online application (May) determined the income for the entry made for [REDACTED] as an employer. The Department did not meet its burden of proof to establish this income.

The Claimant credibly testified that she worked for [REDACTED], and has never worked for [REDACTED]. The subsequent online application (July), which was the subject of this hearing, clearly established that the Claimant did work for [REDACTED], which was confirmed by both the Claimant's application and the Claimant's testimony. The Department included the prior entry of employment [REDACTED] because it was already in the system. The employers were never verified because the earned income used to calculate benefits for the Claimant exceeded the FAP income limit thus deeming her ineligible. Thus under this scenario, the Claimant would have not discovered that earnings from [REDACTED] were included in her FAP and FIP income calculation because she indicated in the first application that she was not employed.

Because the [REDACTED] income was included without Claimant's knowledge, it appears that further verification should have been sought to establish if she worked for Ford, as the Claimant's July 2012 application only listed [REDACTED] as the employer. Under these circumstances the Department's denial of the Claimant's FIP and FAP application was incorrect. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 130, (2012).

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that, due to excess income, the Department properly improperly

- denied Claimant's application
- reduced Claimant's benefits
- closed Claimant's case

for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC.

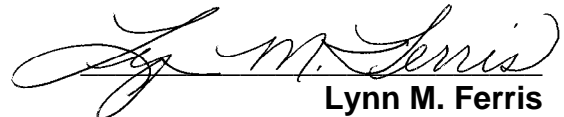

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO DO THE FOLLOWING WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:

1. The Department shall reregister the Claimant's July 9, 2012 application and process the application to determine eligibility for FAP and FIP benefits.
