CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, R 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, R 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Direct Support Services (DSS) is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.57a, et. seq., and Mich Admin Code R 400.3603.

Additionally, in a July 30, 2012 Notice of Case Action, the Department denied Claimant's FIP application dated to February 29, 2012, because Claimant had failed to attend the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) orientation.

In order to increase their employability and obtain employment, work eligible individuals (WEIs) seeking FIP are required to participate in the JET Program or other employment-related activity unless temporarily deferred or engaged in activities that meet participation requirements. BEM 230A (December 1, 2011), p 1; BEM 233A (December 1, 2011), p 1. Work participation program engagement is a condition of FIP eligibility, and while the FIP application is pending, clients must engage in and comply with all work participation program assignments. BEM 229 (December 1, 2011), pp 3, 5. If an applicant fails or refuses to appear and participate with the JET program or other employment service provider without good cause while the FIP application is pending, the applicant is noncompliant and the Department will deny the application. BEM 229, p 5; BEM 233A, pp 1-2, 5. A good cause hearing is not required for applicants who are non-compliant prior to the FIP case opening. BEM 233A, p 7.

In this case, the Department sent Claimant a Work Participation Appointment Notice on July 6, 2012, requiring her to attend a July 23, 2012 JET orientation. Claimant admitted that she did not attend the orientation but testified that she did not receive the Notice. The Department credibly testified that the Notice was printed and sent by its automated system in its central office in Lansing in the ordinary course of business. A copy of the Notice introduced into evidence showed that it was addressed to the [REDACTED] address Claimant verified on the record. Claimant testified that she had been living at the home at that address with her family for over a year. The Department credibly testified that it had not received any returned mail sent to Claimant at the [REDACTED] address. Furthermore, Claimant acknowledged that she did receive the Notice of Case Action denying her FIP application, which was also sent to the [REDACTED] address. Although Claimant testified that her mother, with whom Claimant previously resided, continued to receive some of her mail, because the Appointment Notice was addressed to Claimant's address on [REDACTED] and Claimant verified that her mother did not live on [REDACTED], these mail issues were not relevant to Claimant's alleged nonreceipt of the Appointment Notice. Under these facts, Claimant has failed to rebut the presumption that she received the properly addressed Appointment Notice scheduling her JET orientation sent to her by the Department in the ordinary course of business. See Good v Detroit Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange, 67 Mich App 270, 275-278 (1976). Because Claimant did not attend the orientation, the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied her FIP application.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly denied Claimant's application     improperly denied Claimant's application properly closed Claimant's case             improperly closed Claimant's case for:     AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC  DSS.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly.     did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's  AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC  DSS decision is  AFFIRMED  REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
