CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, R 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, R 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, a client must complete a redetermination to determine the client's continued eligibility for benefits at least every 12 months. BAM 210. A FAP client must also complete a phone interview. BAM 210. The group loses their right to uninterrupted FAP benefits if they fail to (i) file the FAP redetermination by the timely filing date, (ii) participate in the scheduled interview, or (i ii) submit verifications timely, provided the requested submittal date is after the timely filing date. BAM 210.

At the hearing, Claimant admitted that he had received the redetermination form. In fact, he brought his copy of the redetermination with him to the hearing. However, he could not confirm whether he had completed and submitted the form to the Department. It appears that Claimant had received various notices from the Department and was confused regarding why he received those documents. The Department credibly testified that it never received a completed redetermination form from Claimant. Because the Department did not receive a timely redetermination, the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed Claimant's case effective September 30, 2011. While Claimant credibly testified that, after he received the September 7, 2011, Notice of Missed Interview advising him that he had missed his scheduled interview for FAP redetermination and informing him that he was responsible for rescheduling the interview by September 30, 2011, he repeatedly but unsuccessfully attempted to contact his caseworker, the Department testified that Claimant's FAP case was closed because Claimant had not submitted his completed redetermination form, not because of the missed phone interview.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly denied Claimant's application improperly denied Claimant's application properly closed Claimant's case improperly closed Claimant's case for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC.
