MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No: 201225090
Issue No: 1038
Case No: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: March 8, 2012
Lapeer County DHS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Kevin Scully

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge by authority of MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37. Claimant's request for a hearing was received on January 5, 2012. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on Thursday, March 8, 2012. The Claimant and her [REDACTED] personally appeared and provided testimony.

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly sanctioned the Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) case for noncompliance with the Jobs, Education, and Training (JET) program?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant was an ongoing recipient of Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits as two-parent household.
2. The Department referred the Claimant's husband to the Jobs, Education, and Training (JET) program as a condition of receiving FIP benefits and the Claimant's husband had agreed to participate in the JET program on behalf of the benefit group.
3. The Claimant's husband was required to perform 35 hours of JET programming on a weekly basis, and he completed 38 hours of programming during the week of December 10, 2011.

4. The Claimant's husband was noncompliant with the JET program during the week of December 17, 2011, when he completed on 26 out of the 35 hours that were required.
5. The Claimant was excused from participation in the JET program on December 15, 2011, for medical reasons and the Claimant provided verification.
6. The Department conducted a triage meeting on December 29, 2011.
7. On December 29, 2011, the Department notified the Claimant that it would sanction her FIP benefits.
8. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on January 5, 2012, protesting the sanctioning of her FIP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Department policy states that clients must be made aware that public assistance is limited to 48 months to meet their family's needs and that they must take personal responsibility to achieve self-sufficiency. This message, along with information on ways to achieve independence, direct support services, non-compliance penalties, and good cause reasons, is initially shared by DHS when the client applies for cash assistance. Jobs, Education and Training (JET) program requirements, education and training opportunities, and assessments will be covered by the JET case manager when a mandatory JET participant is referred at application. BEM 229.

Federal and State laws require each work eligible individual (WEI) in the FIP and RAP group to participate in the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) Program or other employment-related activities unless temporarily deferred or engaged in activities that meet participation requirements. These clients must participate in employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activities to increase their employability and obtain stable employment. JET is a program administered by the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Growth (DLEG) through the Michigan Works Agencies (MWAs). The JET program serves employers and job seekers for employers to have skilled workers and job seekers to obtain jobs that provide economic self-sufficiency. A WEI who refuses, without good cause, to participate in assigned employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activities is subject to penalties. BEM 230A.

Noncompliance of applicants, recipients, or member adds means doing any of the following without good cause:

- Failing or refusing to:
 - Appear and participate with the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) Program or other employment service provider.
 - Complete a Family Automated Screening Tool (FAST), as assigned as the first step in the FSSP process.
 - Develop a Family Self-Sufficiency Plan (FSSP) or a Personal Responsibility Plan and Family Contract (PRPFC).
 - Comply with activities assigned to on the Family Self-Sufficiency Plan (FSSP).
 - Provide legitimate documentation of work participation.
 - Appear for a scheduled appointment or meeting related to assigned activities.
 - Participate in employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activities.
 - Accept a job referral.
 - Complete a job application.
 - Appear for a job interview (see the exception below).
- Stating orally or in writing a definite intent not to comply with program requirements.
- Threatening, physically abusing or otherwise behaving disruptively toward anyone conducting or participating in an employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activity.

- Refusing employment support services if the refusal prevents participation in an employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activity. BEM 233A.

The Department is required to send a DHS-2444, Notice of Employment and/or Self-Sufficiency Related Noncompliance within three days after learning of the noncompliance which must include the date of noncompliance, the reason the client was determined to be noncompliant, the penalty that will be imposed and the triage date within the negative action period. BEM 233A.

Good cause is a valid reason for noncompliance with employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activities that are based on factors that are beyond the control of the noncompliant person. A claim of good cause must be verified and documented for member adds and recipients. If it is determined at triage that the client has good cause, and good cause issues have been resolved, the client should be sent back to JET. BEM 233A.

Good cause should be determined based on the best information available during the triage and prior to the negative action date. Good cause may be verified by information already on file with DHS or MWA. Good cause must be considered even if the client does not attend, with particular attention to possible disabilities (including disabilities that have not been diagnosed or identified by the client) and unmet needs for accommodation. BEM 233A.

The penalty for noncompliance without good cause is FIP closure. Effective April 1, 2007, the following minimum penalties apply:

- For the first occurrence on the FIP case, close the FIP for not less than 3 calendar months unless the client is excused from the noncompliance as noted in "First Case Noncompliance Without Loss of Benefits" below.
- For the second occurrence on the FIP case, close the FIP for not less than 3 calendar months.
- For the third and subsequent occurrence on the FIP case, close the FIP for not less than 12 calendar months.
- The penalty counter also begins April 1, 2007 regardless of the previous number of noncompliance penalties. BEM, Item 233A.

Noncompliance, without good cause, with employment requirements for FIP/RAP (SEE BEM 233A) may affect FAP if both programs were active on the date of the FIP noncompliance. BEM 233b. The FAP group member should be disqualified for noncompliance when all the following exist:

- The client was active both FIP and FAP on the date of the FIP noncompliance, and
- The client did not comply with FIP/RAP employment requirements, and
- The client is subject to a penalty on the FIP/RAP program, and
- The client is not deferred from FAP work requirements, and
- The client did not have good cause for the noncompliance. BEM 233B.

The Department should budget the Last FIP grant amount on the FAP budget for the number of months that corresponds with the FIP penalty (either three months for the first two noncompliances or 12 months for the third and subsequent noncompliances) after the FIP case closes for employment and/or self sufficiency-related noncompliance. The Last FIP grant amount is the grant amount the client received immediately before the FIP case closed.

The Claimant was an ongoing Family Independence Program (FIP) recipient, and the Department had referred the Claimant's husband to the JET program as a condition of receiving FIP benefits. The Claimant's husband was required to perform 35 hours of JET programming on a weekly basis, and he completed 38 hours of programming during the week of December 10, 2011. The Claimant's husband was noncompliant with the JET program when he completed 26 out of the 35 hours that were required during the week of December 17, 2011. The Department conducted a triage meeting on December 29, 2011, where the Claimant was given the opportunity to establish good cause for noncompliance with the JET program. The Claimant attended the triage meeting by telephone, and the Department did not find good cause. On December 29, 2011, the Department notified the Claimant that it would sanction her FIP benefits.

The Claimant argued that her husband was compliant with the JET program. The Claimant argued that the hours that exceeded the minimum participation level during the week of December 10, 2011, should have excused his lack of participation during the week of December 17, 2011.

The Claimant's husband had 3 extra hours of participation during the week of December 10, 2011, and these hours do not make up for the 9 hours of missing participation during the week of December 17, 2011. The Claimant did not have the opportunity to make up for the missing time after December 17, 2011, because his case had been returned to the Department for a triage meeting in accordance with BEM 233A.

The Claimant argued that her husband had good cause for his noncompliance with the JET program during the week of December 17, 2011. The Claimant argued that a medical condition was a barrier to her husband's participation in the JET program. The Claimant submitted medical documentation excusing her husband's participation in the JET program on December 15, 2011. The Claimant testified that her husband was not capable of participating in the JET program for two days.

The Department excused the husband's absence from the JET program on December 15, 2011. The Department credited the husband for 8 hours of programming for December 15, 2011, but he did not complete the minimum 35 hours of JET programming for the week. The Claimant's medical documentation does not establish that the Claimant was not capable of completing his JET assignment for two days, but only excuses one day of work.

The Claimant argued that her husband could have completed his 35 hours of JET programming for the week of December 17, 2011, but that JET program employees would not allow him to complete any further JET programming. The Claimant failed to offer evidence that her husband was turned away from the JET program, and the Claimant failed to establish that her husband had good cause for his noncompliance with the JET program during the week of December 17, 2011.

Based on the evidence and testimony available during the hearing, the Department's determination that the Claimant's husband did not have good cause for his noncompliance with the JET program is reasonable. The Department has established that it acted properly when it sanctioned the Claimant's FIP benefits for noncompliance with the JET program.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department acted in accordance with policy when it sanctioned the Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) case for noncompliance with the Jobs, Education, and Training (JET) program.

The Department's FIP sanction is AFFIRMED. It is SO ORDERED.
