CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACRS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, because the Claimant received the Verification Checklist, the Claimant was required to provide proof that her employment had ended and additional information outlined in the verification checklist. Although the Claimant testified that she filed a letter explaining why she could not provide the information requested, she did not present the letter at the hearing and her signature was not found after a thorough review of the Department's sign in book for the period identified by the Claimant. Because the Claimant did not provide the information, or otherwise establish that she advised the Department that she could not obtain the requested information, the Department properly closed her food assistance case for failure to respond to the verification request. The Department automatically denies an application under this circumstance when no response is received. The Department correctly denied the application based upon the best information available to it at the time. BAM 115.

At the hearing the Department did not demonstrate that the denial of the Claimant's FAP application was proper with regard to its second stated reason for FAP denial due to non cooperation with the Office of Child Support. (Exhibit 1). No evidence of non cooperation or notice from the Office of Child Support was presented, and no employee from the Office of Child Support was present at the hearing. Therefore, this basis for closure was not supported by any evidence and the Department did not meet its burden of proof. Accordingly, its action denying the Claimant's FAP application for non cooperation was in error. Due to the findings and conclusion set forth above, that the Claimant did not timely respond to the verification checklist, the Department's action is upheld, as the lack a verification was a valid basis to deny the application.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly

- closed Claimant's case.
- denied Claimant's application for failure to provide verification.
- reduced Claimant's benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly. did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.

The Claimant's request for hearing regarding medical assistance is DISMISSED.
