CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACRS R 400.3101-3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACRS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1998-2000 AACS R 400.3151-400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1997 AACS R 400.5001-5015.

Additionally, the Department is entitled to seek verification at application regarding information it must have to determine eligibility for the applied for benefits. In this case because the Department had information that the Claimant might be employed, it needed to verify employment or loss of employment, bank account information, shelter verification and proof of her minor child's enrollment in school. The Claimant provided some of the information on November 18, 2011, after the due date, but did not provide proof of her son's enrollment in school. Because the Department did not receive the requested information by the due date it denied the Claimant's application. The Claimant did not fully respond to the verification request.

The Claimant testified that she had mailed the information on November 5, 2011, but the Department had no record of receipt of any documents from the Claimant, other than those it received from the Claimant on November 18, 2011. The Claimant offered no other corroborating evidence that she had previously provided the Department the information, and was given an opportunity to at the hearing to review the paperwork she brought with her to the hearing to see if she had any documents to offer. Based upon the documents provided and the testimony of the parties, it is determined that the Department properly denied the Claimant's application for FIP due to Claimant's failure to verify information.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly closed Claimant's case.

denied Claimant's application.

reduced Claimant's benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER
