ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: William A. Sundquist

ORDER OF RECONSIDERATION DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 24.287(1) and 1993 AACRS R 400.919 upon the request filed by Claimant's authorized representative requesting reconsideration on July 13, 2012.

ISSUE

Was mailing of Verification Check List (VCL) received by IMN on September 6, 2012 established?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Findings of Fact established in the original Decision and Order are hereby incorporated:

1. On September 6, 2011, Claimant applied for Medicaid (MA-P), was denied on September 26, 2011, and requested a hearing on December 1, 2011.
2. On September 6, 2011, the Department of Human Services (DHS) sent the Claimant and his representative a VCL with a due date of September 16, 2011; the VCL was not timely submitted.
3. The DHS representative stated that she procedurally notated her VCL file copy, after the mailings, on the top of the document, "cc: IMN," as a reminder that a copy was sent to IMN. (DHS Exhibit 1).
4. On November 15, 2011, IMN informed the DHS that it had not received a copy of the VCL and requested a copy.
5. On November 15, 2011, the DHS file copy of the VCL information was notated "cc: IMN" was forwarded to IMN.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (BAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

The IMN representative testified that she did not received a copy of the VCL sent on September 6, 2012 by DHS. This sets up the burden on the DHS to go forward and that a copy of the VCL was sent to IMN.

It is well settled law, where proof of proper mailing (Name of addressee, address and U.S. postage stamp on envelope) is shown, that it will be presumed that the letter was received in the ordinary course of public mail; and that when a party denies receipt, the only effect is to revise an issue of fact for a decision-maker.

The evidence of record does not establish a presumptive mailing of the VCL to IMN. And even if it did, IMN rebutted the presumption by denying VCL-receipt.

Also, the DHS representative testified that after she sent a copy of the VCL on September 6, 2012, she notated on her file copy, "cc: IMN," as a reminder that she had sent IMN a copy. But, the file copy forwarded to IMN on October 15, 2011 did not have the notation. (Claimant Exhibit A, Page 2).

Based on the evidence of record, this Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) finds insufficient evidence that IMN received the VCL on September 6, 2011.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the original decision was incorrect, and accordingly, the original decision is reversed.

According, MA-P denial of Claimant's September 6, 2011 MA-P application is REVERSED and reinstatement and processing of the application is SO ORDERED.
