CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, R 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, R 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Direct Support Services (DSS) is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.57a, et. seq., and Mich Admin Code R 400.3603.

Additionally, in an April 2, 2012 Notice of Case Action, the Department notified Claimant that it denied her March 5, 2012 FAP application based on her failure to cooperate with child support requirements and her failure to provide required verification of identity. Although the Notice also denied Claimant's request for Medical Assistance (MA) benefits, Claimant testified that she had requested a hearing only with respect to the Department's denial of her FAP application.

The head of household in a FAP case must verify his or her identity and failure to do so results in group ineligibility. BEM 221. Also, when a client applies for FAP benefits, if the Department becomes aware of the client's child support noncooperation, the Department must send a Verification Checklist (VCL) informing the client to contact the Office of Child Support (OCS). BEM 255. The client has ten days to cooperate with the OCS. BEM 255.

In this case, after Claimant applied for FAP benefits on March 5, 2012, the Department sent Claimant a VCL on March 15, 2012, requesting by March 26, 2012, verification of identity and rent and information that Claimant contacted the OCS to comply with child support requirements. The evidence established that Claimant received the VCL, which was addressed to her at the address she verified at the hearing as her current address. Claimant explained at the hearing that she had contacted the OCS in 2008, informing her OCS worker at the time that she did not wish to pursue child support from her children's father, and believed the issues with the OCS had been resolved at that time. However, she admitted that she had not subsequently contacted the OCS in response to the Department's VCL or provided any of the information requested by the Department in the VCL. While a FAP applicant's failure to establish cooperation with child support disqualifies the applicant from the FAP group but allows remaining eligible FAP group members to receive benefits, failure to provide verification of identification results in group ineligibility. BEM 221; BEM 255. Thus, the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's FAP application.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly denied Claimant's application improperly denied Claimant's application properly closed Claimant's case improperly closed Claimant's case for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC DSS.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly. did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC DSS decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
