CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3101-3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1998-2000 AACS R 400.3151-400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1997 AACRS R 400.5001-5015.

Additionally, in this case the Department sent out two separate verification requests based upon computer generated information that the Claimant had started a new job with a company identified as [REDACTED]. A second (and later) Verification of Employment and Wage Verification was also sent for [REDACTED]. These verifications were due on separate dates. As regards the [REDACTED] new job information, the Claimant responded by the due date and advised the Claimant's case worker that she never worked for [REDACTED]. The Department did not receive any further information from the Claimant regarding its request for [REDACTED]. The New Hire Notice requested the information be supplied by Claimant, but did not provide the Claimant an address, nor did the Department separately seek to collaterally verify with [REDACTED] whether the Claimant had worked for them. The Claimant testified under oath at the hearing that she at no time worked for [REDACTED].

The second verification request was received by the Claimant, involved her current employer [REDACTED] and was due April 18, 2012. The Claimant did not provide the requested information by the due date, but supplied the information to the Department on May 10, 2012 (after the due date). At the time the [REDACTED] verification was received, the Claimant's case had closed. Clients are required to provide the information requested by the Department in a timely manner. If a Claimant who receives a verification request fails to respond by the due date the Department is required to close the case. BAM 130. In this case, the Department closed the Claimant's case after it did not receive the requested employment verification. And, in accordance with policy, the closure of the Claimant's FAP case was correct. The Claimant may reapply for benefits at any time.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly  improperly closed Claimant's case.

denied Claimant's application.

reduced Claimant's benefits.
