CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, R 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, R 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

The facts of this case are not disputed. The claimant's [REDACTED], resides in the claimant's house for only nine days each month. The rest of the month, he resides with his father. Further, [REDACTED] is a full-time student and is disqualified from receiving Food Assistance benefits due to his student status. The department worker received clarification through the policy unit that indicates the claimant's son's income must be included in the claimant's FAP budget because he [REDACTED]. The policy unit cited BEM 212. The claimant submitted a hearing request to dispute the inclusion of her son's income in his FAP case, when she receives no FAP benefits for him.

While BEM 212 is the controlling policy on this case, the portion cited by the policy unit is not pertinent to this case. The section cited is for a primary caretaker designation, which clearly is not relevant in this case, as [REDACTED] is not a minor child, he is 20 years old. The question would turn upon if the claimant lives with her son, since he only resides in the household for nine days. However, there isn't even a need to get to this question, because the department representative testified that Nicholas is in student status. According to BEM 212 page 7 and 8, persons might live with the FAP group who are not group members. Do not consider their income and assets when determining the group's eligibility. One of the categories listed under this section is ineligible students. Thus, policy indicates that, for FAP, an ineligible student is a non-group member, even if living with a group member. Further, the student's income and assets are not considered toward the FAP group. Therefore, the department improperly included [REDACTED] income in the claimant's FAP eligibility determination.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that, due to excess income, the Department  properly  improperly

- denied Claimant's application
- reduced Claimant's benefits
- closed Claimant's case

for:  AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department  did act properly  did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's  AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC decision is  AFFIRMED  REVERSED for the reasons stated above.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO DO THE FOLLOWING WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:

Reopen and rebudget the claimant's FAP case without using [REDACTED] income as he is not a FAP group member. Issue claimant any retroactive FAP benefits she is entitled to receive. SO ORDERED.
