CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AAC, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700.

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and

- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
- the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
- the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
  - the group has a previous intentional program violation, or
  - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
  - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance, or
  - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving certain program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720.

Additionally, it is the Department's burden of proof to establish by clear and convincing evidence the three elements of Intentional Program Violation presented in BAM 720 (quoted above). These elements will be considered individually. If the Department fails to establish one element, IPV is not proved. BAM 720.

The first IPV element is whether Respondent intentionally failed to report a change of address for the purpose of receiving benefits to which she was not entitled. In order to determine whether Respondent intentionally failed to report a change, it must be determined whether she knew she had to report changes in the first place.

If the Department never informed Claimant of a responsibility to perform an act, it would be impossible to attribute responsibility to Respondent for not performing it. Respondent's testimony at the hearing is that she was taking care of a sick aunt in Ohio and did not know of her reporting responsibility. The documentary evidence presented by the Department in this case does not include an Application form or other document indicating what the Department explained her responsibilities to her. Having taken this evidence and all of the evidence in this case as a whole under consideration, it is found and determined that the Department failed to present clear and convincing evidence that the Claimant intentionally failed to report information for the purpose of obtaining benefits to which she was not entitled. The Department's request for IPV is denied.

The next issue to consider in this case is whether, although no IPV occurred, the Claimant received an overissuance of benefits to which she was not entitled. It is undisputed that Respondent began to live in Ohio with her aunt in about January, 2011, for an indefinite period of time. This does not constitute a change of address, and as a person living in another state, Respondent would not be entitled to benefits from the State of Michigan.

Bridges Administrative Manual 700, "Benefit Overissuances," requires the Department to undertake recoupment of the overissuance whether it is the Department's or the customer's error. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (2013). In this case an error occurred, and the error is attributable to the Department. The Department erred in the first instance by failing to inform Claimant of her responsibility to report changes. If she had known of her responsibility she could have chosen to fulfill it. However, the law requires the Department to initiate recoupment no matter who committed an error. The Department's request for permission to recoup the overissuance in this case is granted.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

  2. Respondent  did  did not receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $2,800 from the following program(s)  FIP  FAP  SDA  CDC  MA.
- The Department is ORDERED to delete the OI and cease any recoupment action.
