CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3101-3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1998-2000 AACS R 400.3151-400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1997 AACS R 400.5001-5015.

Claimant alleged that she did not receive a verification checklist that was sent requesting verification of income.

In May 2012, Claimant told her Jobs, Education and Training (JET) instructors that she was employed; a case note, submitted as Department Exhibit 3, reads that claimant "is working between two jobs." The Department was unaware that she was working and, thus, sent Claimant a verification checklist to resolve the income discrepancy in their records.

Claimant proceeded to tell the Department that she was not working and could not provide them information.

Whether or not Claimant was working, there was, at the least, a discrepancy in Claimant's eligibility data that needed to be resolved to continue benefits; therefore, per BAM 130, the Department was correct to request verification to resolve the discrepancy.

Claimant did not return any verification. While Claimant testified that she did not receive a verification checklist, the undersigned did not find Claimant's testimony credible; there is already a history of Claimant telling different stories to JET and the Department, Claimant apparently received all other documents, and provided no evidence or support to her testimony. Therefore, the Administrative Law Judge holds that Claimant did not return properly requested verification and had no good cause for her refusal to do so.

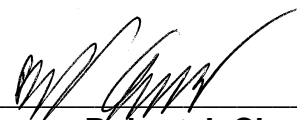

Thus, as no verification was returned, and as the Department needed that verification to determine continued eligibility, the Department was correct to close Claimant's full benefit case.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly determined claimant's full benefit case improperly closed claimant's case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
