ISSUE

Did the Department properly calculate the claimant's MA deductible?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on t he competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. On March 26, 2012, the department sent the claimant a notice of case action, notifying him that his MA would now have a monthly deductible of $143.00.
- 2. On May 10, 2012, the claimant requested a hearing protesting the deductible.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

| Department policies are contained in the Br    | idges Administrative Manual (BA | M), the |
|--|---------------------------------|---------|
| Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Refe | erence Tables Manual (RFT).     |         |
|  |                                 |         |

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and W ork Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193,

The department imposed a deductible on the claimant's MA based on a budget that was not provided. This omission di d not allow this ALJ to question the claimant and the department concerning its elements.

The production of ev idence to support the department's position is c learly required under BAM 600 as well as gener al case law (see e.g., Kar v Hogan, 399Mich529; 251 NW2d 77[1976]). In McKinstry v Valley O bstetrics-Gynecology Clinic, PC 428 Mich167; 405 NW 2d 88 (1987), the Michigan Supreme Court addressed the issue of burden of proof, stating in part:

The term "burden of proof" encompasses two separate meanings. [citation omitted.] One of these meanings is the burden of persuas ion or the risk of nonpersuasion. The other is the risk of going forward or the risk of nonproduction.

The burden of producing evidence on an iss ue means the liability to an adverse ruling (generally a finding or a directed verdict) if evidence on the issue ha s not been produced. It is usually on the party who ha s pleaded the existence of the fact, but..., the burden may shift to the adversary when t he pleader has discharged [its] initial duty. The burden of producing evidence is a critical mechanism[.]

The burden of persuasion becomes a crucial factor only if the parties have sustained their burdens of producing evidence and only when all of the evidence has been introduced.

McKinsrtry, 428 Mich at 93-94, quoting McCormick, Evidence (3d ed), Sec. 336, p. 946.

In other w ords, the burden of producing ev idence (i.e., of going forward) involves a parties duty to introduce enough evidenc e to allow the trier of fact to render a reasonable and informed decision.

In the instant case the department was unable to sufficiently support:

- 1. Whether a deductible was proper in this case.
- 2. Whether the amount of the deductible was correct.

deductible was applied, identified as of April 1, 2012.
