CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Service s Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Program Reference Tables (PRT).

☐ The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established purs uant to the Personal Responsibility and W ork Opportunity Reconc iliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly k nown as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 t hrough R 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.
The Food Assistanc e Program (FAP) [form erly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is establis hed by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amend ed, and is implemented by the federal r egulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independenc e Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 through R 400.3015.
☐ The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The D epartment of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3151 through R 400.3180.
The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is establis hed by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Soc ial Security Act, the Child Care and Developm ent Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Fede ral Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Depart ment provides servic es to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001 through R 400.5015.
☐ The Medical Ass istance (MA) program is es tablished by the Title XIX of the Soc ial Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independ ence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MC L 400.105.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfar e fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
 - the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
 - the group has a previ ous intentional program violation, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves c oncurrent receipt of assistance.
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. [BEM 720 (August 1, 2012), p 10.]

Subsequent to the sc heduling of the current hearing and prior to the hearing date, the Notice of Hearing and accompanying document s (which establis hed due notice) were mailed to Respondent via first class mail at the last known address and wer e returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable. D epartment policy dictates that when correspondence sent to Respondent concer ning an intentional program violation (IPV) is returned as undeliver able, the hearing c annot proceed with respect to any program other than Food Assist ance Program (FAP). BAM 720, p 10. Thus, the hearing proceeded with respect to the alleged FAP IPV.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an overis suance (OI) exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inacc urate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly in structed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or me ntal impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their r eporting respon sibilities. [BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original).]

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p 1.

The Department must establish an IPV by clear and convincing evidence. BAM 720, p 1. Clear and convinc ing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

hat Respondent traffick ed his FAP benefits at In this case, the Department alleges t Noor Fruit Market in Melvi ndale ("Noor"). Trafficking is the buying or selling of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other t han eligible food. Department of Human Services, Bridges Policy Glossary (BPG) (April 1, 2012), p 45. Trafficking also includes (i) fraudulently using, transferring, al tering, acquir ing, or possessing coupons, authorization cards, or access devices, or (ii) redeeming or presenting for payment coupons known to be fraudulently obtained or transferred. BEM 203 (October 1, 2011). p 2. The Department has also reference ed the definitions of trafficking from MC 750.300a of the Michigan Penal Code and from 7 CFR § 273.16(c)(2) (2012). While the definition of trafficking from a criminal statute is not appropriate in an administrative hearing, it is noted that the definitions provided in both MCL 750.300a and 7 CFR § 273.16(c)(2) are similar to those in BEM 203 and in the BPG.

In support of its allegation that Respondent trafficked hi s FAP benefits at Noor, the Department relied on (i) the cri minal trafficking investigation and resulting complain t against Noor, (ii) the admissions of traf ficking made by Noor's owner and unnamed customers, and (iii) Respondent's transaction history at Noor.

The Department presented evidence that an investigation of Noor by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) and federa. I Office of Inspector General concluded that Noor was trafficking benef. its, resulting in a pending. criminal complaint agains to Noor's owner in federal court. As of the edate of this hearing, the criminal matter involving Noor was unresolved. Thus, while there are all egations that Noor trafficked benefits, there has been no confirmation of that fact. Accordingly, it is inappropriate to base any allegations that Re spondent trafficked his FAP benefits at Noor on the fact that Noor is an establishment where FAP benefits were trafficked.

At the hearing, the De partment also presented evidence that, during the course of the investigation against Noor, the owner of Noor admitted that he was involved in trafficking FAP benef its and that former N oor customers had admitted that they h ad trafficked FAP benefits at Noor. Statements made by other s offered into evidence t o prove the truth of the matter asserted are h earsay and are generally inadmissible in a trial or hearing. MRE 801; MRE 802. Administ rative hearings are subject to the same rules used in circuit court to the extent these rules are practical in the case being heard. BAM 600 (August 1, 2012), p 28. In this case, statements by Noor's owner and former customers regarding t rafficking activity at Noor are hearsay and have limited, if any, evidentiary value in this case. Firstl y, the Department's te stimony concerning statements by Noor's owner and customers involve persons who are not parties to the instant proceeding. Also, the statements we re not made to the OIG agent who testified at the hearing. And, finally, evidence that third parties may have engaged in trafficking at Noor is not dispositive of whether Respondent engaged in trafficking, particularly where no one identified Res pondent as having trafficked hi s FAP benefits at Noor an d Respondent has not admitted he trafficked his FAP benefits at Noor.

The only remaining evidence pr esented by the Department to est ablish Respondent's trafficking was his F AP transaction history at Noor. The Depar tment contended that Respondent's $1432.69 in FAP transactions at Noor between March 1, 2011 and Feburary 29, 2012, were not supported by the stock of eligible food items sold at Noor. However, there was no clear and convincing evidence that the stock of eligible food at Noor could not support Respondent's purchases at the store. While Respondent's transaction history shows that Respondent's purchases at Noor were substantially greater than his purchases at other est ablishments, evidence of his transactions at Noor, without more, fail to es tablish by clear and convinc ing evidence that Respondent trafficked high s FAP benefits. Thus, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV with respect to his FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IP V disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p 12.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the overissuance relates to MA. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwis e eligible. BAM 710 (October 1, 2009), p 2. Cli ents are disqua lified for pe riods of on e year for the first IPV, two years for the sec ond IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p 13.

In this case, the Department has failed to sa tisfy its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification under the FAP program.

Recoupment of Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700 (December 1, 2011), p 1.

The OI amount for trafficking-related IPVs is the v alue of the trafficked benefits as determined by a cour t decision, the individ ual's admission, or documentation used to establish the trafficking determination. BAM 720, p 7.

At the hearing, the Department alleged that Respondent trafficked $1432.69 of his FAP benefits between March 1, 2011 through F ebruary 29, 2012. However, as discussed above, the Department failed to establis h that Respondent trafficked his FAP benefits. Thus, it is not entitled to recoup any FAP benefits in this case.
