CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

Additionally, the Department's Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 105, "Rights and Responsibilities," requires customers to cooperate fully with the Department's requests for information. In this case it is found and determined that the customer failed to present verification of her address in a timely fashion. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 105 (2013).

The Claimant's May 8, 2012 application listed an address of 18184 Dequindre in Detroit. On or about July 13, 2012, the Department requested verification of Claimant's address. Dept. Exh. 1, pp. 1, 3.

Although the Claimant testified that she brought address identification to the Department, it was not in the Department's case file. The Claimant testified that she brought a State of Michigan Identification card, and she produced the card at the hearing. However, she could not verify the correct address because her address changed more than once, and the dates she moved were not shown on the card. Claimant also testified that she submitted an envelope with her current address, but she did not produce it at the hearing.

It is found and determined that Claimant's testimony is insufficient to establish that she cooperated fully in providing verification to the Department. Claimant's ID card does not establish the date or dates she moved, and Claimant presented no other evidence at the hearing.

Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 130, "Verification and Collateral Contacts," requires the Department to verify residence information in order to determine if a person is eligible for benefits and the amount of benefits to which they are entitled. It is impossible for the Department to make benefit decisions without shelter and shelter cost information. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 130 (2012).

In conclusion it is found and determined that the Department acted correctly in this case and it shall be affirmed.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly denied Claimant's application improperly denied Claimant's application properly closed Claimant's case improperly closed Claimant's case for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly. did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
