Case No:

Hearing Date: January 10, 2013

DHS-SSPC-WEST

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Corey A. Arendt

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 following Claim ant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on J anuary 10, 2013 from Lansing, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included

ISSUE

Whether the Department properly denied t he Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application due to Claimant's student status?

FINDINGS OF FACT

I find as material fact, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record:

- 1. As of November 15, 2 012, the Claimant was enroll ed more than part-time in an educational institution.
- On November 15, 2012, the Department sent the Cla imant a notice of cas e action. The notice indicated the Department was denying the Claimant's FAP application due to his student status.
- On November 27, 2012, the Claimant requested a hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The regulations governing the hearing and appeal process for applicants and recipients of public assistance in Michigan are found in the Michigan Administrative Code, MAC R 400.901-400.951. An oppor tunity for a hearing shall be granted to an ap plicant who requests a hearing because his claim for assistance is denied. (MAC R 400.903(1)).

Clients have the right to contest a Departm ent decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. The Department will provide an administrative hearing to rev iew the decision and determine the appropriateness of that decision. (BAM 600).

The FAP (formerly known as the Food Stam p (FS) program) was established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in T itle 7 of t he Code of Federal Regulations (CF R). The Department administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Effective April 1, 2011, client s in student status are no lon ger eligible to receive F AP benefits based solely on an approved education plan. BEM 245. A person is in student status if the person is 18 through 49 years old and enrolled half -time or more in: (i) a vocational, trade, business, or technical s chool that normally requires a high school l diploma or an equivalency cer tificate; or (ii) a regular curriculum at a college or university that offers degree programs regard less of whether a diploma is required. (BEM 245).

In order for an individual in student status to be eligible for FAP benefits, the individual must meet one of the following criteria:

- Receiving Family Independence Program benefits.
- Enrolled in an instituti on of higher educat ion as a result of participation in:
 - •• Approved employment -related activities.
 - •• A JTPA program.
 - •• A program under Sect ion 236 of the Trade Readjustment Act of 1974.
 - •• Another State or local government employment and training program.
- Physically or mentally unfit for employment.
- Employed for at least 20 hours per week and paid for such employment.
- Self-employed for at least 20 hours per week and earning weekly income at least equivalent to the federal minimum wage multiplied by 20 hours.
- Participating in an on-the-job training program. A person is considered to be participating in an on-thejob training program only during the period of time the person is being trained by the employer.
- Participating in a state or federally-funded work study program (funded in f ull or in part under Title IV-C of the Higher Education Ac t of 1965, as amended) during the regular school y ear. To qualify under this student status eligibility provision, the student must be approved for work study during the school term and anticipate actually working during that time, unless exempted because the student:

- Starts the month the school term begins or the month work study is approved, whichev er is later.
- Continues until the end of the month in which the school term ends, or when you bec ome aware that the student has refused a workstudy assignment.
- •• Remains between ter ms or semesters when the break is less than a full m onth, or the student is still participating in work study during the break.
- Providing more than half of the physical care of a group member under the age of six.
- Providing more than half of the physical care of a group member age six through eleven and the local office has determined adequate child care is not available to:
 - •• Enable the person to attend clas s and work at least 20 hours per week.
 - Participate in a state or federally-financed work study program during the regular school year.
- A single parent enrolled fu II-time in an in stitution of higher education who cares for a dependent under age 12. This includes a per son who does not live with his or her spouse, who has parental control over a child who does not live with his or her natural, adoptive or stepparent. (BEM 245).

For the care of a child under age six, the department shall consider the student to be providing physical care as long as he or she claims primary responsibility for such care, even though another adult may be in the FAP group. Moreover, when determining the availability of adequate child care for a child between the ages of six and 11, another person in the home, over 18 years of age, need not be a FAP group member to provide care. (BEM 245).

A person remains in student st atus while attending classes regularly. Student status cont inues during official s chool vacations and periods of extended illness. Student status does not continue if the st udent is suspended or does not intend to register for the next school term (excluding summer term). (BEM 245).

Testimony and other evidence must be we ighed and considered according to its reasonableness. Moreover, the weight and credibi lity of this evidence is generally for the fact-finder to determine. In evaluating the credibility and weight to be given the testimony of a witness, the fact-finder may consider the demeanor of the witness, the reasonableness of the witness is testimony, and the interest, if any, the witness may have in the outcome of the matter.

I have carefully considered and weighed the testimony and other evidence in the record and find the Claimant did not meet a single ex ception to the student status policy an d therefore the Department acted appropriately in denying the Claimant's FAP application.

DECISION AND ORDER

I find, based upon the above findings of fact and conclus ions of law, decide the Department acted in accordance with policy in determining Claimant was not eligible for FAP benefits due to student status.

The Department's actions are AFFIRMED.
