CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACRS R 400.3101-3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACRS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1998-2000 AACRS R 400.3151-400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1997 AACSR 400.5001-5015.

Additionally, in this case the evidence presented demonstrated that the Claimant did not provide her son's pay stubs within the time provided by the verification checklist of 11/26/12. Subsequently after the notice of case action was received, the Claimant and her caseworker did discuss the case and the Claimant was told to reapply by her caseworker. The Claimant's caseworker credibly testified that she did not speak to the Claimant until 12/10/12 after the Notice of Case Action had been issued and after the verifications were due. The Claimant's caseworker further testified that she did not recall any prior calls from the Claimant and returns her phone messages and keeps a phone log. The Claimant could not recall the dates she attempted to contact her caseworker regarding the issue of her son having lost his pay stubs and the employer's unwillingness to give wage information to the Claimant's son. Under these circumstances it is determined that at the time it made the decision to close the FAP case, the Department had no verifications and had no basis to keep the case open. The Department had no contact with the Claimant about the verifications until after the Notice of Case Action and therefore correctly closed the FAP case based upon the best available information that it had at the time. Department of Human Services Bridge's Administrative Manual (BAM) 130 (5-1-2012).

The Claimant may reapply for FAP benefits at any time.

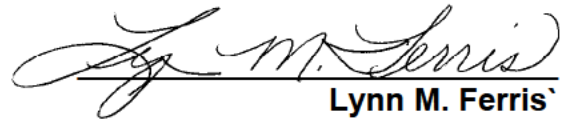

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly

- closed Claimant's case.
- denied Claimant's application.
- reduced Claimant's benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
