2. The OIG  has  has not requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of  FIP  FAP  SDA  CDC  MA benefits during the period of October 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011.
4. Respondent  was  was not aware of the responsibility to report truthful, accurate and complete information, to report changes of information, and to use FAP benefits in a particular manner.
5. Respondent had no apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period they are considering the fraud period is October 1, 2010-June 30, 2011.
7. During the alleged fraud period, Respondent was issued $1,655 in  FIP  FAP  SDA  CDC  MA benefits from the State of Michigan.
8. Respondent was entitled to $1,655 in  FIP  FAP  SDA  CDC  MA during this time period.
9. Respondent  did  did not receive an OI in the amount of $1,655 under the  FIP  FAP  SDA  CDC  MA program.
10. The Department  has  has not established that Respondent committed an IPV.
11. This was Respondent's  first  second  third IPV.
12. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and  was  was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

☒ The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance (OI). Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (2013).

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 720 (2013).

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
- the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
- the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
  - the group has a previous intentional program violation, or
  - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or

- the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance, or
- the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving certain program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. Id.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 710 (2009). Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720.

Additionally, it will be considered first, whether there is clear and convincing evidence to establish that an act of IPV occurred in this case. This is part of the first of the three required IPV elements which must be proven. BAM 720.

In this case the evidence presented consists of Department records of FAP benefits and purchases, and a description and pictures of a store where unlawful purchases were allegedly made. Dept. Exh. 1, pp. 6-10, 20-26. Having considered the evidence in its entirety, it is found and determined that the evidence is insufficiently clear and convincing to establish that an IPV act occurred in this case.

The first item of evidence, which is the Department's records, does not show what items were in fact purchased. The Department's records establish only that it provided FAP benefits and that purchases were made. This evidence may be a basis for further investigation into the facts, but in and of itself it does not identify any IPV act by Respondent.

The second item of evidence is a store description and pictures provided by the U.S. Food and Nutrition Service. This evidence connects to the Respondent in this case in a merely circumstantial manner, i.e., that this Respondent made purchases there. It is impossible to determine more than that from this limited evidence. As a result, it is found and determined that there is no clear and convincing evidence establishing that Respondent committed an IPV. The Department's request for a finding of IPV must be denied.

Next, considering whether an overissuance of FAP benefits occurred in this case, this offense requires a showing of an overissuance caused by a Department or customer error. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (2013). Having considered all of the evidence in its entirety in this case, it is found and determined that no error by any party has is demonstrated clearly and convincingly. The evidence in this case is insufficient to meet the standard of proof required for an overissuance finding. The Department's request for a finding of overissuance in this case is denied.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

1. Respondent  did  did not commit an IPV.
2. Respondent  did  did not receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $1,655 from the following program(s)  FIP  FAP  SDA  CDC  MA.

The Department is ORDERED to delete the OI and cease any recoupment action.
