HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 following Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on March 27, 2013, from Lansing, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Participants on behalf of Department of Human Services (Department) included [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Due to a failure to comply with the verification requirements, did the Department properly deny Claimant's application close Claimant's case reduce Claimant's benefits for:

| <input type="checkbox"/> Family Independence Program (FIP)? | <input type="checkbox"/> State Disability Assistance (SDA)? |

| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Medical Assistance (MA)? | |

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, including testimony of witnesses, finds as material fact:

1. On January 22, 2013, the Claimant applied for benefits. On the application, the Claimant indicated he had both a checking and savings account.
2. On January 24, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant a verification checklist. The checklist requested the Claimant submit proofs of his checking and savings accounts to the Department by February 4, 2013.
3. As of February 4, 2013, the Claimant submitted to the Department a copy of only his checking account.
4. As of February 4, 2013, the Claimant had not notified the Department as to the fact he only had a checking account.

5. On February 7, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant a notice of case action . The notice indicated that the Claimant's FAP and MA cases were closing for failure to provide verification of his savings account.
6. On February 19, 2013, the Claimant requested a hearing to dispute the FAP and MA closures.
7. On approximately February 27, 2013, the Claimant told the Department he did not have a savings account.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The FAP [formerly known as the Food Stamp (F S) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The MA program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

Clients have the right to contest a Department decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. The Department will provide an administrative hearing to review the decision and determine the appropriateness of that decision. (BAM 600).

Department policy indicates that clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility with all programs. (BAM 105). This includes completion of the necessary forms. Clients who are able to but refuse to provide necessary information or take a required action are subject to penalties. (BAM 105).

In this case the issue is the Claimant's failure to submit the requested verifications to the Department or notify the Department about the fact he did not have a savings account. It is undisputed that the Claimant received adequate notice regarding the verification checklist. And it is undisputed that the Claimant failed to turn in the verifications being requested. Therefore, I find the Department acted in accordance with the applicable laws and policies in denying the Claimant's FAP and MA application as at no time the Claimant notified the Department prior to the due date regarding his savings account as required and requested (verification checklist).

DECISION AND ORDER

I find, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Department did act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
