CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Department of Human (DHS) policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Clients have the right to contest a Department decision affecting eligibility for benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. The Department Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 600 (February 1, 2013). The Department will provide an administrative hearing to review the decision and determine the appropriateness of that decision. BAM 600. The regulations governing the hearing and appeal process for applicants and recipients of public assistance in Michigan are found in the Michigan Administrative Code (Mich Admin Code), R 400.901-400.951.

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 through R 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Family Independence Program (FIP) is temporary cash assistance to support a family's movement to self sufficiency. It was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 through R 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The FIP benefit program is not an entitlement. BEM 234 (January 1, 2013). Time limits are essential to establishing the temporary nature of aid as well as communicating the FIP philosophy to support a family's movement to self-sufficiency. BEM 234. Michigan operates the FIP Program by using both federal and state funds. The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA) established a five-year (60-month) lifetime limit on assistance for adult-headed families. The begin date for the federal time limit counter is October 1, 1996. Each month an individual receives FIP, regardless of the funding source (federal or state), the individual receives a count of one month. A family is no longer eligible for FIP when a mandatory group member in the program group received 60 months or more of federally funded FIP assistance. Notwithstanding, the FIP time-limit is 48 months for the receipt of state funded benefits. Once an individual reaches a FIP time-limit whether state or federal the FIP closes, the individual is not eligible for FIP if the individual reapplies and meets an exemption criteria based on the funding source. BEM 234.

Effective January 9, 2013, the federal 60 month time-limit policy does not apply to individuals who were deferred from the work participation program for either of the following: (i) domestic violence; (ii) being 65 years of age or older; (iii) a verified disability of long-term incapacity lasting longer than 90 days; or (iv) provides care for a spouse or child with verified disabilities living in the home. BEM 234. The benefits received will be state funded until the 48 month state time-limit maximum is reached. BEM 234.

In this case, the Department performed a mass update in February 2013 as the result of the outcome of a lawsuit involving the federal and state time-limit laws for FIP assistance cases. The courts found that the FIP assistance time-limit policies were not unconstitutional. The Department pended the Claimant's and other clients FIP cases for closure effective March 1, 2013 due to allegedly reaching the 60 month time limit for federally funded FIP benefits. Claimant testified that she disagreed with the Department's action because she does not believe she has received 60 months of FIP assistance. She finds the FIP time-limit policy unfair because she still needs cash assistance during hard times. The Department presented evidence showing the Claimant periodically received FIP benefits that were federally funded from December 1998 through November 2012. (see Exhibit 1) Claimant did not refute the Department's records regarding the receipt of benefits for the months counted. Further, Claimant did not assert that she was entitled to any exemption months due to being deferred from the work participation program at the time of closure.

Based on the evidence on record, the Department presented sufficient documentary evidence to establish that the Claimant received 60 months of federally funded assistance. Nothing in the record indicates that Claimant met any of the criteria for an exception to the federal time-limit policy as of January 9, 2013. Therefore, the Department's action was in accordance with policy and law when it closed the Claimant's FIP case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department acted in accordance with policy when it terminated Claimant's FIP benefits effective March 1, 2013 for reaching the 60 month lifetime limit for federal funded FIP assistance.

Accordingly, the Department's FIP determination is hereby, AFFIRMED.
