CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance Program is established pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). It is administered in accordance with state statute, the Social Welfare Act, the Administrative Code, and the State Plan under Title XIX of the Social Security Act Medical Assistance Program.

Home Help Services (HHS) are provided to enable functionally limited individuals to live independently and receive care in the least restrictive, preferred settings. These activities must be certified by a physician and may be provided by individuals or by private or public agencies.

Adult Services Manual 101 (11-1-2011) (hereinafter "ASM 101") and Adult Services Manual 120 (11-1-2011) (hereinafter "ASM 120") address the issues of what services are included in Home Help Services and how such services are assessed:

Home Help Payment Services

Home Help Services are non-specialized personal care service activities provided under the independent living services program to persons who meet eligibility requirements.

Home Help Services are provided to enable individuals with functional limitation(s), resulting from a medical or physical disability or cognitive impairment to live independently and receive care in the least restrictive, preferred settings.

Decision and Order

Home Help Services are defined as those tasks which the department is paying for through Title XIX (Medicaid) funds. These services are furnished to individuals who are not currently residing in a hospital, nursing facility, licensed foster care home/home for the aged, Intermediate Care Facility (ICF) for persons with developmental disabilities or institution for mental illness.

These activities must be certified by a Medicaid enrolled medical professional and may be provided by individuals or by private or public agencies. The medical professional does not prescribe or authorize personal care services. Needed services are determined by the comprehensive assessment conducted by the adult services specialist.

Personal care services which are eligible for Title XIX funding are limited to:

Activities of Daily Living (ADL)

- Eating.
- Toileting.
- Bathing.
- Grooming.
- Dressing.
- Transferring.
- Mobility.

Instrumental Activities of Daily Living (IADL)

- Taking medication.
- Meal preparation/cleanup.
- Shopping for food and other necessities of daily living.
- Laundry.
- Housework.

An individual must be assessed with at least One Activity of Daily Living (ADL) in order to be eligible to receive Home Help Services.

Note: If the assessment determines a need for an ADL at a level 3 or greater but these services are not paid for by the department, the individual would be eligible to receive IADL services.

Decision and Order

Example: Ms. Smith is assessed at a level 4 for bathing however she refuses to receive assistance. Ms. Smith would be eligible to receive assistance with IADL's if the assessment determines a need at a level 3 or greater. [ASM 101, pages 1-2 of 4].

Services not Covered by Home Help Services

Home help services must not be approved for the following:

- Supervising, monitoring, reminding, guiding of encouraging (functional assessment rank 2). [ASM 101, page 3 of 4].

Functional Assessment

The Functional Assessment module of the ASCAP comprehensive assessment is the basis for service planning and for the HHS payment.

Conduct a functional assessment to determine the client's ability to perform the following activities:

Activities of Daily Living (ADL)

- Eating
- Toileting
- Bathing
- Grooming
- Dressing
- Transferring
- Mobility

Instrumental Activities of Daily Living (IADL)

- Taking Medication
- Meal Preparation and Cleanup
- Shopping
- Laundry
- Light Housework

Functional Scale

ADL's and IADL's are assessed according to the following five-point scale:

Decision and Order

1. Independent: Performs the activity safely with no human assistance.
2. Verbal Assistance: Performs the activity with verbal assistance such as reminding, guiding or encouraging.
3. Some Human Assistance: Performs the activity with some direct physical assistance and/or assistive technology.
4. Much Human Assistance: Performs the activity with a great deal of human assistance and/or assistive technology.
5. Dependent: Does not perform the activity even with human assistance and/or assistive technology.

Home Help Payments may only be authorized for needs assessed at the 3 level or greater.

An individual must be assessed with at least One Activity of Daily Living in order to be eligible to receive home help services.

Note: If the assessment determines a need for an ADL at a level 3 or greater but these services are not paid for by the department, the individual would be eligible to receive IADL services.

Example: Ms. Smith is assessed at a level 4 for bathing however she refuses to receive assistance. Ms. Smith would be eligible to receive assistance with IADL's if the assessment determines a need at a level 3 or greater.

See ASM 121, Functional Assessment Definitions and Ranks for a description of the rankings for activities of daily living and instrumental activities of daily living. [ASM 120, pages 2-3 of 5].

Here, the ASW testified that she sent out an Adequate Negative Action Notice to the Appellant indicating that his request for HHS would be denied as the comprehensive in-home evaluation conducted and his medical needs form did not identify a need for hands on assistance with an Activity of Daily Living. (See Exhibit A, pp. 6-7, 9-13). The

[REDACTED]

Decision and Order

ASW stated on [REDACTED], she did a home visit with the Appellant and did a face-to-face assessment to determine Appellant's eligibility for HHS. She determined the Appellant did not meet the criteria for HHS as he did not need assistance with any of his ADLs.

The ASW stated during the assessment the Appellant told her he needed assistance with housework, laundry, meal preparation, and shopping. Appellant told the ASW he was able to perform his personal hygiene such as brushing his teeth, getting dressed, toileting, and washing up. Appellant did tell the ASW that he sometimes has his hands cramp up and he gets sleepy from his medication. The ASW noted Appellant had a back brace and a three-prong cane. The ASW also interviewed [REDACTED] and she said she does housework, shopping, provides transportation and generally helps the Appellant with what he needs depending on how he feels that day. [REDACTED] did not indicate to the ASW that the Appellant needed any hands on assistance with his activities of daily living. Finally, the ASW said she followed up with the Appellant's doctor who did not certify that the Appellant had a medical need for assistance with any of his ADLs. The doctor only certified a need for assistance with housework, shopping, meal preparation and laundry.

The ASW acknowledged the rankings she gave Appellant on his ADLs and IADLs. (See Exhibit A, p. 17). The ASW also acknowledged the Medical Needs form, the DHS-54A completed by the Appellant's doctor, which indicates the Appellant only had a medical need for assistance with meal preparation, shopping, laundry, and housework. (See Exhibit B).

The ASW referenced the policy on eligibility for HHS, (ASM 120, page 3 of 5), and stated HHS may only be authorized for needs assessed at the [REDACTED] level or greater and that an individual must be assessed with at least one activity of daily living in order to be eligible to receive HHS. The ASW concluded that this policy supported the negative action she took in this case.

During the hearing, Appellant indicated he did not understand why he couldn't get any assistance, he said he needs help and that is why he has got someone helping him. Appellant stated he felt like the ASW was getting rude with him during the assessment. He said he later called to apologize to the ASW.

The preponderance of reliable evidence in this case demonstrates that the Appellant does not need assistance with any of his ADLs. According to the policy quoted above, an individual is only eligible to receive HHS if he has a need for assistance with an ADL at a level [REDACTED] or greater. See ASM 101, page 2 of 4; ASM 120, page 3 of 5. Appellant has no such need and is therefore ineligible to receive any type of HHS. Accordingly, the Department's decision must be sustained.
