CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Service s Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), B ridges Elig ibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services, Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Reference Schedules Manual (RFS). ☐ The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established purs uant to the Personal Responsibility and W ork Opportunity Reconc iliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly k nown as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 t hrough R 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistanc e Program (FAP) [form erly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is establis hed by the Food St amp Act of 1977, as amend ed, and is implemented by the federal r egulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independenc e Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 through R 400.3015.

The State Disabilit y Assistance (SDA) progr am, which provides financial ass istance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The D epartment of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3151 through R 400.3180.

☐ The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is establis hed by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Soc ial Security Act, the Ch ild Care and Developm ent Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Fede ral Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Depart ment provides servic es to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001 through R 400.5015.

The Medical Ass istance (MA) program is es tablished by the Title XIX of the Soc ial Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independenc e Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MC L 400.105.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfar e fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
  - the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
    - the group has a previ violation, or ous intentional program
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves c oncurrent receipt of assistance,
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. [BEM 720 (August 1, 2012), p 10.]

Subsequent to the sc heduling of the current hearing and prior to the hearing date, the Notice of Hearing and accompanying documents were mailed to Respondent via first class mail at the last known address and we re returned by the United St ates Postal Service as undeliverable. Department policy dictates that when correspondence sent to Respondent concerning an IPV is returned as undeliverable, the hearing cannot proceed with respect to any program other than Food Assistance Program (FAP). BAM 720, p 10. Thus, the hearing proceeded with respect to the alleged FAP IPV.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an overis suance (OI) exis ts for which all t hree of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionall y gave incomplete or inaccurate informati on needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly in structed regarding h is or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities. [BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original).]

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p 1.

The Department must establish an IPV by clear and convincing evidence. BAM 720, p 1. Clear and convinc ing evidence is eviden ce sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

The Department alleges that Responden t committed an IPV of her FAP benefits because she trafficked $3567.08 of her FAP benefits at Trafficking is the buyi ng or selling of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food. Department of Human Services, Bridges Policy Glossary (BPG) (April 1, 2012), p 45. Tr afficking also inc ludes (i) fraudulently us ing, transferring, altering, acquiring, or possessing coupons, aut horization cards, or access devices, or (ii) redeeming or presenting for payment coupons k nown to be fraudulently obtained or transferred. BEM 203 (October 1, 2011), p 2.

The Department credibly testif ied that Sectors y was found in administrative hearings before the United St ates Depa rtment of Agriculture (USD A) to have trafficked FAP benefits and had its authorization to accept FAP benefits revoked. To support a trafficking case against Respondent, the D epartment must establish, by clear an d convincing evidence, that Respondent e ngaged in trafficking wh en she us ed her FAP benefits at

While there was no evidence that Respondent used her FAP benefits to purchases noneligible food items, as alleged by the Department, t he De partment also relied on Respondent's FAP transaction history at in the 34 months between to establish trafficking. This transaction history shows multiple transactions by Res pondent at with several s mall transactions but four daily transaction totals over $100. The history also shows that, on several ty multiple times in a sing le occasions, Respondent used her FAP benefits at day, often separated by hours. It also show s several consecutive days' use of FAP benefits at Respondent's high volume transactions, coupled with multiple transaction on a single day or on consecut ive days, at an establishment that trafficked FAP benefits was sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent trafficked her FA P benefits at Thus, the Department established that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IP V disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p 12.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard di squalification period except when a court orders a diffe rent period, or except when the overissuance relates to MA. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwis e eligible. BAM 710 (October 1, 2009), p 2. Cli ents are disqua lified for pe riods of on e year for the first IPV, two years for the sec ond IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p 13.

In this case, the Department satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed a first IPV of the FAP program through trafficking. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification under the FAP program.

Recoupment of Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700 (December 1, 2011), p 1. The OI amount for trafficking-related IPVs is the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by a court decision, the individual's admission, or document ation used to establish the trafficking determination. BAM 720, p 7. The documentation used to establish h Respondent's trafficking in this case was Respondent's FAP transaction history at This doc ument shows $3567. 08 in F AP transactions by Res pondent at Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $3567.08.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

1. Respondent  $\square$  did  $\square$  did not commit an IPV.

2. Respondent 🛛 did 🗌 did not receive an OI of prog ram benefits in the amount of $3567.08 from the following program(s)
FIP FIP FAP SDA CCC MA.

The Department is ORDERED to delete the OI and cease any recoupment action.

initiate recoupment procedures for t he amount of $3567.08 in accordance with Department policy.

reduce the OI to for the period , in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FIP K FAP SDA CDC for a period of 12 months. 24 months. I lifetime.
