- (4) At the triage meeting Claimant was found to not have good cause and her case was processed for closure.
- (5) Claimant requested a hearing on [REDACTED] contesting the closure of FIP benefits.
- (6) Claimant's treating physician [REDACTED] submitted a medical needs form dated [REDACTED] that stated Claimant was not able to work her usual job or any job. This form also states that Claimant needs assistance with toileting, bathing, dressing, transferring, meal preparation, shopping, laundry and housework.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human services (DHS or Department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference manual (PRM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) provides temporary cash assistance to support a family's movement to self-sufficiency. The recipients of FIP engage in employment and self-sufficiency-related activities so they can become self-supporting. Federal and State laws require each work eligible individual (WEI) in the FIP group to participate in the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) Program or other employment-related activities unless temporarily deferred or engaged in activities that meet participation requirements. These clients must participate in employment and/or self-sufficiency related activities to increase their employability and obtain stable employment. BEM 230A.

JET is a program administered by the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Growth (DLEG) through the Michigan Works Agencies (MWAs). The JET program serves employers and job seekers for employers to have skilled workers and job seekers to obtain jobs that provide economic self-sufficiency. BEM 230 A. A mandatory participant in the JET program who fails without good cause to participate in employment activity must be penalized. BEM 233(a). The penalty for the first occurrence of noncompliance in the JET program is a closure for a minimum of three calendar months under the FIP program. BEM 233(a). Good cause is a valid reason for noncompliance with employment related activities. A claim of good cause must be verified and documented for applicants, members, and recipients. BEM Manual Item 230(a), BEM Manual Item 230(b); 7 CFR Parts 272 and 273.

In the present case, Claimant's treating physician completed a medical needs form dated [REDACTED] that states the Claimant is unable to work at her usual occupation or any job. It states that she is able to do no lifting and that she needs assistance with her activities of daily living. Claimant appeared at hearing in a wheel chair. This Administrative Law Judge finds that Claimant had good cause for failing to participate with JET due to her health problems related to complications with multiple sclerosis and these problems were sufficiently documented. Therefore it was improper and incorrect for the Department to close Claimant's FIP benefits. BEM 233A

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law decides that the Department was incorrect in the closure of Claimant's FIP benefits and it is ORDERED that the Department's decision in this regard be and is hereby REVERSED. Claimant's FIP benefits shall be reinstated going back to the closure and the negative action shall be deleted. Any missed benefits shall be paid to Claimant in the form of a supplement.
