The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, at the hearing the Department could not explain why Claimant's CDC application of April, 2012, was denied. The Department presented no documents to explain why the Claimant's application was denied.

The Department's Bridges Administrative Manual 105, "Rights and Responsibilities," requires the Department to determine eligibility, provide benefits and protect client rights. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 105 (2013). In this case the Department cannot state the reason for the denial, and as a result the application may have been denied for an arbitrary, or, for no reason at all. Because this process failed to protect the client from unfair action, the Department has violated BAM 105 and shall be reversed.

- properly denied Claimant's application improperly denied Claimant's application properly closed Claimant's case improperly closed Claimant's case
