ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services (DHS) properly deny claimant's Medical Assistance (MA-P)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On August 2, 2012 claimant applied for MA-P with the Michigan DHS.
2. Claimant did not apply for retro MA.

7. At the Administrative Hearing, verification on the record indicated that claimant received an unfavorable [REDACTED] decision from [REDACTED] on May 14, 2012. No evidence exists regarding any appeal. Claimant was given 30 days to provide evidence of an appeal and also given the opportunity to submit new and additional medical documentation, pursuant to an Interim Order Extending the Record issued on January 31, 2013. Claimant failed to do so. Claimant has been denied [REDACTED] by the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Claimant has had a final determination by [REDACTED]
None of the exceptions apply.

8. The November 12, 2012 SHRT decision is adopted and incorporated by reference herein in the alternative.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

Statutory authority for the SDA program states in part:

- (b) A person with a physical or mental impairment which meets federal SSI disability standards, except that the minimum duration of the disability shall be 90 days. Substance abuse alone is not defined as a basis for eligibility.

Prior to any substantive review, jurisdiction is paramount. Applicable to the case herein, policy states:

Final SSI Disability Determination

SSA's determination that disability or blindness does not exist for SSI purposes is final for MA if:

- . The determination was made after 1/1/90, and
- . No further appeals may be made at SSA, or
- . The client failed to file an appeal at any step within SSA's 60-day limit, and
- . The client is not claiming:
 - .. A totally different disabling condition than the condition SSA based its determination on, or
 - .. An additional impairment(s) or change or deterioration in his condition that SSA has not made a determination on.

Eligibility for MA based on disability or blindness does not exist once SSA's determination is final. PEM, Item 260, pp 2-3.

Relevant federal regulations are found at 42 CFR Part 435. These regulations provide: "An SSA disability determination is binding on an agency until the determination is changed by the SSA." 42 CFR 435.541(a)(b)(i). These regulations further provide: "If the SSA determination is changed, the new determination is also binding on the agency." 42 CFR 435.541(a)(b)(ii).

In this case, verification from [REDACTED] indicates claimant receive an unfavorable decision pursuant to an Administrative Hearing on May 14, 2012. Claimant was given an opportunity to provide verification of an appeal. Claimant did not do so. Claimant's claim was considered by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] denied. The determination was final. Claimant is alleging the same impairments. None of the exceptions apply.

For these reasons, under the above-cited policy and federal law, this Administrative Law Judge has no jurisdiction to proceed with a substantive review. The department's denial must be upheld.

As noted above, should the [REDACTED] change its determination, then the new determination would also be binding on the DHS.

In the alternative, should the sequential analysis be applied, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge would concur with the findings and conclusions of the SHRT decisions in finding claimant not disabled under federal law and state policy.

Claimant may reapply.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the department's actions were correct.

Accordingly, the department's determination in this matter is UPHELD.
