DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 201318326
Issue No.: 1080
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: [REDACTED]
County: Genesee DHS (02)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Kevin Scully

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon the Claimant's request for a hearing received by the Department of Human Services (Department) on [REDACTED]. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED], from [REDACTED]. Participants on behalf of the Claimant included [REDACTED]. Participants on behalf of the Department included [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Whether the Department properly determined that the Claimant has exceeded the lifetime limit on Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant applied for Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits on [REDACTED].
2. On [REDACTED], the Department determined that the Claimant is not eligible for FIP benefits after exceeding the lifetime limit on cash assistance program benefits.
3. On [REDACTED], the Department notified the Claimant of the closure.
4. On [REDACTED], the Department received the Claimant's Request for Hearing, disputing the Department's action on the basis that the Department improperly determined the number of months that the Claimant has received Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Clients have the right to contest a Department decision affecting eligibility for benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. The Department Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 600 (February 1, 2013). The Department will provide an administrative hearing to review the decision and determine the appropriateness of that decision. BAM 600. The regulations governing the hearing and appeal process for applicants and recipients of public assistance in Michigan are found in the Michigan Administrative Code (Mich Admin Code), R 400.901-400.951. An opportunity for a hearing shall be granted to an applicant who requests a hearing because the claim for assistance is denied. Mich Admin Code, R 400.903(1).

FIP was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 through R 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are contained in BAM, the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The FIP benefit program is not an entitlement. BEM 234 (January 1, 2013). Time limits are essential to establishing the temporary nature of aid as well as communicating the FIP philosophy to support a family's movement to self-sufficiency. BEM 234. BEM 234 and MCL 400.57a (4) restrict the total cumulative months that an individual may receive FIP benefits to a lifetime limit of 60 months for cash assistance program benefits funded with temporary assistance for needy families whether or not those months are consecutive.

In this case, the Department presented records showing that the Claimant has received 60 months of federally-funded Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits.

In this case, the Department presented records showing that the Claimant has received 48 months of state-funded Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits.

Testimony and other evidence must be weighed and considered according to its reasonableness. Gardiner v Courtright, 165 Mich 54, 62; 130 NW 322 (1911); Dep't of Community Health v Risch, 274 Mich App 365, 372; 733 NW2d 403 (2007). Moreover, the weight and credibility of this evidence is generally for the fact-finder to determine. Dep't of Community Health, 274 Mich App at 372; People v Terry, 224 Mich App 447, 452; 569 NW2d 641 (1997). In evaluating the credibility and weight to be given the testimony of a witness, the fact-finder may consider the demeanor of the witness, the reasonableness of the witness's testimony, and the interest, if any, the witness may have in the outcome of the matter. People v Wade, 303 Mich 303 (1942), cert den, 318 US 783 (1943).

The Claimant testified that she has been deferred from participation in Work First! and community service assignments due to her medical condition. The Claimant disputed the Department's determination of the number of months that she has received Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits.

This Administrative Law Judge has carefully considered and weighed the testimony and other evidence in the record and finds the Department has failed to meet its burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the Claimant has reached or exceeded the lifetime limit of 60 months for cash assistance program benefits funded with temporary assistance for needy families or 48 months for cash assistance program benefits funded with state funds.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department has a duty to provide a detailed listing of the months attributed to each particular funding source where it is not disputed that the Claimant was exempted from a portion of those periods. In this case, the Department only provided the total months attributed to federal and state funded benefits. The Department left it to the Claimant to establish that any of the 60 or 48 months were incorrectly accounted for by the Department.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department failed to establish that it properly closed the Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department failed to establish that it properly closed the Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits for exceeding the lifetime limit.

Accordingly, the Department's FIP eligibility determination is for the reasons stated on the record.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO DO THE FOLLOWING WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:

1. Provide the Claimant with a detailed listing of the months that she has received state-funded Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits, and a detailed listing of the months that she has received federally-funded Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits.
2. Initiate a determination of the Claimant's eligibility for the Family Independence Program (FIP) as of [REDACTED]

3. Provide the Claimant with a Notice of Case Action (DHS-1605) describing the Department's revised eligibility determination.
4. Issue the Claimant any retroactive benefits that the Claimant may be eligible to receive, if any.
