| In this case, the only evidence of a criminal justice disqualification in the record was the Department's testimony that — its computers had indicated that the claimant had a criminal justice disqualification. The Department's w orkers could not even state what the criminal dis—qualification was. The Claimant denied — having a criminal justice disqualification. The claimant testified that he does have a son, and perhaps something is showing up on the Department's computer system regarding his son. The Administrative Law Judge fi — nds that the evidence — is insufficient to establish that the Claimant has a criminal justice disqualification. |   |                 |      |                      |   |  |  |  |
