When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700.

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed t o report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and co rrectly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

IPV is sus pected when there is clear and convinc ing evidenc e that the client has intentionally withheld or misr epresented information for t he purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduc tion of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuance es are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
- the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
- the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
 - the group has a previ ous intentional program violation, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves c oncurrent receipt of assistance,
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IP V disqualifies that client from receiving certain program benefits. A disqualified reci pient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with t hem. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard di squalification period except when a court orders a diffe rent period, or except when the overissuance relates to MA. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwis e eligible. BAM 710. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifet ime disqualification for the th ird IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720.

Additionally, the respondent used her FAP b enefits at Sunset Party Shop, which was a store that was disqualified from SNAP. Department Exhibit 1. The respondent was a client ident ified during the investigation with transaction histories of greater than $50 that exceeded the normal dollar transaction amount of a store that size with the limited number of items available for sale. Department Exhibit 1.

FAP benefits must be used to purchase elig ible food for the household. Rec ipients are also precluded from purchasi ng eligible food items on credit and paying for them later with their Bridge card. FAP benefits shall be used to pay for any eligible food purchased prior to the time at which the EBT card is presented to the authorized retailer or used to pay for eligible food in advance of the receipt of the food. ...7 CFR 274.7

The Claimant denied violati on above. The DHS introduced no objective evidenc e of record that the Respondent's purchases at the Suns et Party Shop violated the abov e federal regulation.

It is the well settled la w that Administrative Law Judges are not permitted to guess at material facts in dispute and it w ould only be a guess as to whether or not the Claimant committed FAP fraud by the clear and convincing evidence of record.
