ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No: 201351621
Issue No: 3008
Case No: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: July 10, 2013
DHS SSPC WEST

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Suzanne D. Sonneborn

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon Claimant's request for a hearing received by the Department of Human Services (department) on June 5, 2013. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 10, 2013. Claimant appeared by three-way conference call and provided testimony. At Claimant's request, Spanish interpreter [REDACTED] (# [REDACTED]) with [REDACTED], provided interpreter assistance via conference call. The department was represented by [REDACTED], an assistance payments worker with the department's SSPC West office.

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (department) properly denied Claimant's application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to return the required verification?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On May 20, 2013, Claimant applied for FAP benefits and, in doing so, reported during his May 21, 2013 interview that he received monthly financial assistance from a friend to help pay his expenses. (Department Exhibit 4)
2. On May 21, 2013, the department mailed Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS 3503), requesting that Claimant provide verification of his rent, his receipt of unemployment compensation benefits, as well as his receipt of a donation or contribution from a person outside his group. This information was due to the department by May 31, 2013. (Department Exhibit 2)

3. While Claimant timely provided the department with the requested verification of his rent, he failed to provide verification of his receipt of unemployment compensation benefits, as well as his receipt of a donation or contribution from a person outside his group. (Department Exhibit 4)
4. On June 3, 2013, the department mailed Claimant a Notice of Case Action (DHS 1605), informing him that his application for FAP benefits had been denied due to his failure to provide the required verifications. (Department Exhibit 3)
5. On May 6, 2013, Claimant requested a hearing contesting the department's denial of his application for FAP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Clients have the right to contest a department decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. The department will provide an administrative hearing to review the decision and determine the appropriateness of that decision. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 600 (2011), p. 1. The regulations governing the hearing and appeal process for applicants and recipients of public assistance in Michigan are found in sections 400.901 to 400.951 of the Michigan Administrative Code (Mich Admin Code). An opportunity for a hearing shall be granted to an applicant who requests a hearing because his claim for assistance is denied. Mich Admin Code R 400.903(1).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) was established pursuant to the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.30001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

Department policy indicates that clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility with all programs. BAM 105. This includes completion of the necessary forms. Clients who are able to but refuse to provide necessary information or take a required action are subject to penalties. BAM 105. Clients must take actions within their ability to obtain verifications. BAM 130; BEM 702. Likewise, DHS local office staff must assist clients who ask for help in completing forms. BAM 130; BEM 702; BAM 105.

Verification is usually required upon application or redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level. BAM 130. The department must allow a client 10 calendar days (or other time limit specified in policy) to provide the requested verification. BAM 130. If the client is unable to provide the verification despite a reasonable effort, the department must extend the time limit at least once. BAM 130. .

For MA, if the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort, the time limit is extended up to three times. BAM 130. Should the client indicate a refusal to provide a verification or, conversely, if the time period given has elapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it, the department may send the client a negative action notice. BAM 130. (Emphasis added).

In the instant case, Claimant is disputing the department's denial of his application for FAP benefits for failure to provide the requested verification – specifically, Claimant's failure to submit proper verification of his receipt of unemployment compensation benefits, as well as his receipt of a donation or contribution from a person outside his group.

At the July 10, 2013 hearing, Claimant testified that he did not submit the required verifications because, when he received the Verification Checklist, he did not understand what was required of him due to his limited English. However, as the department's representative testified, the Verification Checklist contains the following statement in Spanish: "If you do not understand this, call a DHS office in your area." The department representative further testified that Claimant did not contact his branch office at any time after the Verification Checklist was mailed to Claimant and indicate that he did not understand the document.

Testimony and other evidence must be weighed and considered according to its reasonableness. Gardiner v Courtright, 165 Mich 54, 62; 130 NW 322 (1911); Dep't of Community Health v Risch, 274 Mich App 365, 372; 733 NW2d 403 (2007). Moreover, the weight and credibility of this evidence is generally for the fact-finder to determine. Dep't of Community Health, 274 Mich App at 372; People v Terry, 224 Mich App 447, 452; 569 NW2d 641 (1997).

This Administrative Law Judge has carefully considered and weighed the testimony and other evidence in the record and finds that, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence presented during the July 10, 2013 hearing, the department could not have known that Claimant required interpretation assistance in understanding and obtaining the required verifications because Claimant did not advise the department of his need for such assistance. Accordingly, the department acted in accordance with policy in denying Claimant's application for FAP benefits for failure to timely return the required verifications.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the department acted in accordance with policy in denying Claimant's application for FAP benefits for failure to timely return the required verifications.

Accordingly, the department's action in this regard is UPHELD.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
