The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Department denied the Claimant's MA application and his retroactive MA application because Claimant failed to verify his spouse's income.

Claimant is not married and, therefore, does not have a spouse. Claimant's girlfriend lives with Claimant and has an active benefits case at the Department's Hamtramck office.

Claimant's duty to provide verifications requested is spelled out in Departmental policy.
