ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's January 17, 2013, application for Medical Assistance (MA) with retroactive MA coverage to November 2012?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. On January 17, 2013, Claimant applied for MA, with retroactive coverage to November 2012.
- Claimant's AHR served as his authorized representative (AR) during the application process.
- 3. In connection with processing the application, the Department sent Claimant and the AHR a Verification Checklist (VCL) requesting, among other things, that Claimant provide documentation concerning his real property.
- 4. The Department did not receive any documentation concerning real property.

- 5. On March 4, 2013, the Department sent Claimant and the AHR a Notice of Case Action denying Claimant's application on the basis that Claimant had failed to verify requested information.
- 6. On May 23, 2013, the AHR filed a request for hearing disputing the Department's actions.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

Additionally, as a preliminary matter, it is noted that the Department did not participate in this hearing. The hearing was scheduled as a three-way telephone hearing. The AHR called the Michigan Administrative Hearing System (MAHS) at 2:58 p.m. to indicate it was prepared to proceed with the hearing. MAHS emailed the Department at 3:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. to inform the Department that the AHR was prepared to proceed. The Department did not call in. The hearing commenced at 4:00 pm with Claimant's AHR as the sole party-participant.

At the hearing, the Department's hearing summary was read into the record. The summary indicated that the Department denied Claimant's MA application because neither Claimant nor the AHR, acting as Claimant's AR, responded to the Department's VCL requesting documentation concerning real properly identified by Claimant as an asset in his application, despite the three extensions granted to respond to the VCL.

In this case, the AHR acknowledged that Claimant had identified real property as an asset on his application and no verification of any real property had been provided to the Department in response to the VCL. The Department may send a case action notice denying an MA application if the client indicates a refusal to provide a verification or the time period given has elapsed. BAM 130 (May 2012), p. 6. Thus, the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied the application for failure to provide requested verifications.

At the hearing, the AHR contended that because the real property at issue was most likely a homestead, which is an excluded asset for MA purposes, the Department should have pursued investigating the nature of the real property at issue before denying the application. Clients and their authorized representatives have a responsibility to cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. BAM 105 (March 2013), p. 5. In this case, the AHR acknowledged that it had been unable to reach Claimant itself in order to obtain any information concerning Claimant's real property ownership. Because Claimant identified his assets on his application, the Department acted according to Department policy when it sought verification of those assets, and the burden was on Claimant and his AHR to identify the nature of those assets in order to determine Claimant's MA eligibility.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's January 17, 2013, MA application, with retroactive coverage.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
