The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015. Additionally, the following findings of fact and conclusions of law are entered in this case: On May 13, 2013, the Department sent Claimant a Verification Checklist requesting school attendance records for her three children, The Department gave a deadline of May 23, 2013. Dept. Exh. 1, and pp. 4-5. On May 15, 2013, the Department sent Claimant a form entitled Work and/or Self-Sufficiency Rules for Case Recipients, requesting her signature. Claimant failed to sign the form. Id., pp. 24-25. On May 20, 2013 the Department received Verification of Student Information for (DOB . The report indicated she was on the school truancy list for poor attendance. Id., pp. 18-21. On May 21, 2013, the Department received the Verification of Student Information for (DOB

Regarding no school information was provided. Her date of birth is

Department policy, which is Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 245, "School Attendance and Student Status," states that if a child between the ages of six and fifteen is not attending school fulltime, the entire family is not eligible for FIP benefits. Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 245 (2013), p. 1.

Accordingly, it is found and determined that the Department acted correctly and in accordance with BEM 245 in denying FIP benefits to Claimant. Claimant's daughter according to school records, was not attending school fulltime, and this disqualifies the entire family group. Id.

While it is true that the Department stated other reasons for the denial of this application, it is found and determined that the outcome of this case is correct. Therefore the erroneous reasons for the denial are considered as harmless error, and do not affect the outcome of the case.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department
