CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3001-3015

At the hearing, the Department testified that Claimant had provided copies of direct deposit details which were included in the hearing packet. The Department found these document's to not include information the Department requested.

Claimant has her checks from work directly deposited in a bank that is only available to her on-line as there are no physical facilities that she can access.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that Claimant made a reasonable effort to provide the requested documentation and that the Department should have used the best information available as supplied by Claimant. BAM 130 (July 2013).

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly

- closed Claimant's case.
 denied Claimant's application.
 reduced Claimant's benefits.
