CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

Clients must cooperate with the local DHS office in obtaining verification for determining initial and ongoing eligibility. BAM 105; BAM 130. The client should be allowed 10 calendar days to provide the verification. BAM 130. If the client refuses to provide the information or has not made a reasonable effort within the specified time period, then policy directs that a negative action be issued. Id. "Tell the client what verification is required, how to obtain it, and the due date; see Timeliness of Verifications in this item. Use the DHS-3503, Verification Checklist (VCL), or for MA redeterminations, the DHS-1175, MA Determination Notice, to request verification." Id.

Do not deny or terminate assistance because an employer or other source refuses to verify income. BAM 105

In the present case, Claimant cooperated with the Department in all aspects that were in her control with respect to submitting requested verification. Claimant submitted verification that was in her control by the due date of August 12, 2013. The Department representative testified that the only verification that was not returned was the DHS 49, which document was in the control of Claimant's doctor. Claimant testified that she saw her doctor on July 29, 2013, and expected that the doctor would submit the verification by the due date. However, per the Department representative, the doctor did not submit the verification until two days after the due date.

Based on the above discussion, I do not find that Claimant failed to cooperate with the Department, as she did all she could do, within her control, to submit the verification in a timely manner.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department improperly denied Claimant's MA application.

In addition, at the hearing, Claimant stated that she no longer requested a hearing regarding FAP.
