Additionally, Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 105 (2013) p. 1, provides that MA is comprised of several eligibility categories. Claimants may be eligible for MA if the Claimant is blind, disabled, over 65 or under 21, pregnant or a caretaker of minor children. The uncontested fact in this case is that the Claimant simply does not fit into any of the eligibility categories since his niece and nephew are now over 18. As both the are over 18, but under 21, they are potentially eligible for MA on their individual cases should they apply. The evidence in this case indicates that the Claimant's did apply for MA and does have MA with a deductible. The Claimant was informed that if his was disputing that deductible, he could request a hearing to have the deductible reviewed, but that matter would be separate from this hearing because the Claimant's has his own case.
BEM 105 p. 5, provides that an ex parte review is required before Medicaid closures when there is an actual or anticipated change, unless the change would result in closure due to ineligibility for all Medicaid. When possible, an ex parte review should begin at least 90 days before the anticipated change is expected to result in case closure. The review includes consideration of all MA categories. In this case, the Department conducted such a review and determined that the Claimant was only potentially eligible for AMP, as he does not fit any of the eligibility categories for MA. It was not contested that the Claimant earns over every two weeks. The Department's Reference Tables at RFT 236 (2009), which was in effect at the time the Department took action in this case, sets the income levels to be eligible for AMP. For the Claimant's group size of one person RFT 236 p. 1, provides that the AMP income level is As such, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly determined that the Claimant had excess income to be eligible for AMP.
The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department $\boxtimes$ acted in accordance with Department policy when it took action to close the Claimant's MA case.
DECISION AND ORDER
Accordingly, the Department's decision is   AFFIRMED.
