Additionally, the Claimant applied for MA-OHK on July 3, 2013. Department Exhibit 1-18. The Claimant's children were already receiving benefits on another case. On August 12, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant notice that two (2) of his children were already receiving MA-OHK on another case. Department Exhibit 19-27. According to Department policy, the children can only be on one case at a time. The Claimant provided written verification that he has had custody of the children for the past two (2) years. However, the children had to be removed from the other case before they could be put on the Claimant's case.

The Department Caseworker notified the Caseworker in the other county that the Claimant had applied for benefits and the children were removed from that case as of September 30, 2013.
