CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department argued that claimant failed to return properly requested verifications, and thus had her FAP case closed.

However, the Department has submitted no evidence that shows that the verifications in question were properly requested or needed to determine eligibility.

Per BAM 130, the Department may request verifications when required by policy, or when an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory.

Claimant was not under a redetermination, nor was she applying for FAP benefits when the verifications were requested.

Furthermore, the Department has submitted no evidence showing that there was information that called into dispute the information the Department already had on hand with regard to claimant's benefit eligibility.

Therefore, as there is no evidence showing that claimant's benefit eligibility was in dispute or unclear, the undersigned has no choice but to hold that the Department has failed to meet its burden of proof in showing that the verifications in question were needed to determine continued FAP eligibility.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it requested verifications and closed claimant's FAP case.
