3. The Claimant receives monthly earned income in the gross monthly amount of [REDACTED].

4. On October 1, 2013, the Department determined that the Claimant is eligible for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits of [REDACTED] for September of 2013, [REDACTED] for October of 2013, and [REDACTED] for November of 2013.
5. On October 1, 2013, the Department sent Claimant/Claimant's Authorized Representative (AR) its decision.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

All earned and unearned income available to the Claimant is countable. Earned income means income received from another person or organization or from self-employment for duties that were performed for compensation or profit. Unearned income means all income that is not earned, including but not limited to funds received from the Family Independence Program (FIP), State Disability Assistance (SDA), Child Development and Care (CDC), Medicaid (MA), Social Security Benefits (RSDI/SSI), Veterans Administration (VA), Unemployment Compensation Benefits (UCB), Adult Medical Program (AMA), alimony, and child support payments. The amount counted may be less than the client actually receives because the gross amount is used prior to any deductions. Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 500 (July 1, 2013).

All income is converted to a standard monthly amount. If the client is paid weekly, the Department multiplies the average weekly amount by 4.3. If the client is paid every other week, the Department multiplies the average bi-weekly amount by 2.15. Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 505 (July 1, 2013), pp 7-8.

The Claimant's monthly earned income of [REDACTED] was determined by multiplying the average of the two bi-weekly paychecks received in September [REDACTED] and multiplying by a factor of 2.15 as directed by policy.

The Department determined that any child support income received by the Claimant's household before he submitted his application for assistance was not likely to continue, and therefore no child support income was budgeted.

Based on the evidence and testimony available during the hearing, the Department has established that it properly determined the Claimant's monthly prospective income and properly applied this income to his eligibility for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it determined the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) eligibility.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is

AFFIRMED.
