

STATE OF MICHIGAN
MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 2013-57376
Issue No.: 3052
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: November 7, 2013
County: Wayne DHS (17)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Christian Gardocki

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Human Services (DHS), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on November 7, 2013 from Detroit, Michigan. [REDACTED], Regulation Agent for the Office of Inspector General (OIG), testified on behalf of DHS. Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

The first issue is whether Respondent committed an intentional program violation (IPV).

The second issue is whether DHS is entitled to debt collection remedies for an alleged over-issuance of benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On [REDACTED]/12, Respondent applied for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits from the State of Michigan.
2. On an unspecified date, DHS approved Respondent's FAP benefit application.

3. Beginning [REDACTED]/12, Respondent primarily spent FAP benefits outside of Michigan and continued doing so through the date of [REDACTED]/12.
4. Over the course of benefit months [REDACTED]/2010-[REDACTED]/2011, Respondent received $1400 in FAP benefits.
5. Over the course of benefit months [REDACTED]/2011-[REDACTED]/2012, Respondent received $2958 in FAP benefits.
6. On [REDACTED]/13, DHS requested a hearing to establish that Respondent committed an IPV for $4358 in allegedly over-issued FAP benefits over the periods of [REDACTED]/2010-[REDACTED]/2011 and [REDACTED]/2011-[REDACTED]/2012.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015. Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) and Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

This hearing was requested by DHS, in part, to establish that Respondent committed an IPV. DHS may request a hearing to establish an IPV and disqualification. BAM 600 (8/2012), p. 3.

The client/authorized representative (AR) is determined to have committed an IPV by:

- A court decision.
- An administrative hearing decision.
- The client signing a DHS-826, Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing or DHS-830, Disqualification Consent Agreement or other recoupment and disqualification agreement forms. Id.

There is no evidence that Respondent signed a DHS-826 or DHS-830. There is also no evidence that a court decision found Respondent responsible for an IPV. Thus, DHS seeks to establish an IPV via administrative hearing.

The Code of Federal Regulations defines an IPV. Intentional program violations shall consist of having intentionally: (1) made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts; or (2) committed any act that constitutes a violation of the Food Stamp Act, the Food Stamp Program Regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of coupons, authorization cards or reusable documents used as part of an automated benefit delivery system. 7 CFR 273.16 (c).

DHS regulations also define IPV. A suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities. BAM 720 (1/2011), p. 1. see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6).

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing (emphasis added) evidence that the client or CDC provider has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. Id. Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01. It is a standard which requires reasonable certainty of the truth; something that is highly probable. Black's Law Dictionary 888 (6th ed. 1990).

DHS alleged that Respondent intentionally failed to report a change in residency to DHS resulting in improper FAP benefit issuances. To establish that Respondent committed an IPV, DHS must establish that Respondent lost Michigan residency.

To be eligible for FAP benefits, a person must be a Michigan resident. BEM 220 (1/2012), p. 1. For FAP benefits, a person is considered a resident while living in Michigan for any purpose other than a vacation, even if there is no intent to remain in the state permanently or indefinitely. Id. Eligible persons may include persons who entered the state with a job commitment or to seek employment or students (this includes students living at home during a school break.) Id. Based on DHS policy, the only clearly defined requirement is “living in Michigan”.

A loss of Michigan residency does not necessarily coincide with leaving the State of Michigan. DHS has no known policies banning travel or FAP benefit usage outside of Michigan, though DHS policy states that clients absent from a home for longer than 30 days are not considered temporarily absent. BEM 212 (9/2010), p. 2; in other words, if a person is out of a home longer than 30 days, they are no longer in the home. The policy is not necessarily directly applicable to residency, but barring evidence suggesting otherwise, a 30 day period outside of Michigan is a reasonable time to allow before residency in another state is established.

DHS presented Respondent's State of Michigan FAP purchase history (Exhibits 29-34). The history verified that Respondent spent State of Michigan issued FAP benefits primarily in [REDACTED] beginning [REDACTED] 12 and continuing through [REDACTED]/12. Two purchases in Michigan, on [REDACTED]/12 and [REDACTED]/12, were verified.

DHS, in part, alleged that Respondent spent FAP benefits outside of Michigan for a period of [REDACTED]/2010-[REDACTED]/2011 and [REDACTED]/2011-[REDACTED]/2011. DHS failed to verify the allegation by presenting Respondent's EBT history for those time periods. The presented Lexis/Nexis history showing Michigan and [REDACTED] addresses suggested Michigan residency as much as out-of-state residency. It is found that DHS failed to establish that Respondent was not a Michigan resident for the periods of [REDACTED]/2010-[REDACTED]/2011 and [REDACTED]/2011-[REDACTED]/2011. An IPV analysis will continue for an alleged overissuance benefit period of [REDACTED]/2012-[REDACTED]/2012.

It is possible that Respondent lived in Michigan from [REDACTED]/2012 through [REDACTED]/2012 but happened to purchase food outside of Michigan. The possibility is remote considering the lengthy distance between Michigan and [REDACTED]

The fact that Respondent made two purchases in Michigan during the alleged overissuance period shows some relationship to Michigan. It is conceivable that the Michigan purchases were made during a return home. When factoring that the Michigan transactions occurred over a three-day period within an 11 month period of out-of-state usage, Michigan residency is less likely.

DHS also presented a Lexis/Nexis report (Exhibits 35-49). For 2011 and 2012, the report listed overlapping addresses for Respondent; two were Michigan addresses and one was a [REDACTED] address. A listed Michigan and [REDACTED] address verified that the addresses were current through [REDACTED]/2012.

The Lexis/Nexis report also listed Respondent's motor vehicle history. It was noted that Respondent registered a vehicle on [REDACTED]/12 in Michigan. A Michigan motor vehicle registration is consistent with Michigan residency.

Based on the totality of evidence, DHS failed to establish that Respondent was not a Michigan resident during any period of State of Michigan FAP eligibility. Accordingly, DHS failed to establish any overissuance of FAP benefits to Respondent occurred or that Respondent committed an IPV.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV for FAP benefits issued for the periods of [REDACTED]/2010-[REDACTED]/2011 and [REDACTED]/2011-[REDACTED]/2012. It is further found that Respondent did not receive an overissuance of FAP benefits for the periods of [REDACTED]/2010-[REDACTED]/2011 and [REDACTED]/2011-[REDACTED]/2012.

The hearing request of DHS is DENIED.
